

Winch Action Clouds B.C. Vote Picture

MLAs Hint Pressure for Him
To Stay as Leader of CCF

Decision of Harold Winch to resign as leader of the CCF Party was the main point of speculation in B.C.'s confused political situation today as all parties began preparations for the general election.

NO ELECTION DATE SET

Announcement of the exact date of B.C.'s general election was delayed again today. Premier Bennett said a cabinet meeting Tuesday will consider the date which is to be "on or before June 15." See page 13 for preparations of parties for the campaign.

MUST QUIT

CCF Leader's Finances 'Impossible'

In an interview today, Harold Winch said his 20 years in politics have left him in an "impossible financial position."

"I am in an impossible financial situation on account of devoting my entire time the last 20 years to being an MLA," he said.

Mr. Winch, an electrician by trade, has no plans yet as to what business he will enter when he leaves politics.

Asked if he plans to run again as an MLA even if he is not party leader, Mr. Winch said: "I don't know." He was definite, however, that his resignation as leader must stand.

"I can't think of anything the convention can possibly say which would make me change my mind," he said.

WIRE BRIEFS

Dutch Dikes Holding

THE HAGUE (Reuters)—Dikes round the islands of the Scheldt estuary were fully manned today, ready for high flood tides expected tonight. There were some breaches in the sea-wall surrounding Schouwenenduiveland Island Sunday, but most were quickly repaired.

Killed by Gas

VANCOUVER (BUP)—A 53-year-old Vancouver parking lot proprietor, William Collins, died from gas fumes Sunday in his office at 735 Seymour. Police said Collins' coffee pot apparently boiled over and extinguished the flame from his one-burner gas stove.

Plane Crash Kills 6

ANGRO DO HEROSMO, AZORES (BUP)—Six men were killed last night and four were critically injured when a United States B-29 crashed just south of the Lages American-Portuguese airbase in the Azores.

Four Teeners Drown

LYNDEN, WASH. (UPI)—Four teenagers were carried to their deaths Sunday night in a speeding automobile that hurtled from a road into 20 feet of water, the Washington State Patrol said Monday. Patrolmen identified them as Iyla J. Hempel, 15; Alvin A. Hempel, 16; Glenn Stremler, 18; and John Silvis, 16.

Wreckage Sighted

NAIROBI (AP)—The wreckage of a Viking airliner which disappeared in the African wilds was found by search planes today. First reports indicated it is unlikely there would be any survivors. The plane carried 13 people, including two women. Search planes reported wreckage strewn over a wide area.

33 AGED DIE AS FIRE GUTS NURSING HOME

Florida Inferno
Lasted 15 Minutes

LARGO, Fla. (UP)—Investigators combed through a mass of ashes, blackened bed frames and other debris today in an effort to determine the cause of a wind-whipped fire which killed 33 aged persons at a nursing home near here.

Ages of the dead ranged from 65 to 91. Twenty-nine of them were women.

William L. Littlefield, operator of the home, said the fire roared through the structure early Sunday and killed the 33 dazed and feeble inmates within 15 minutes. Twenty-five others escaped the flaming structure.

Don Jerlita, deputy Florida fire marshal, planned to interview witnesses, some of the personnel of the home and others who dashed into the flaming structure to save those who lived.

BROKE OUT AT 3 A.M.

The fire, whipped by a gusty wind, broke out shortly after 3 a.m. There were occasional screams as flames reached bed after bed, witnesses said.

A nurse rescued one old woman, then dashed back into the flames in response to screams of others, and died. A man was killed in an auto wreck while driving one of the injured to a hospital.

Ned Moren, 31, Littlefield's son-in-law, said the position of the bodies indicated few of the victims had tried to leave their beds. "If some of the old people had made an effort, they could have been saved," he said, "and if the wind had been still we might have saved all of them. But the wind kept shifting."

Night of Terror as Ammo Train Wrecked

LEWIS, Ind. (AP)—Demolition squads worked their way today through the desolation left in this little coal mining town by a nightmare of fire and flying shrapnel from three freight-car loads of exploding ammunition.

Scarcely a half-dozen houses remained habitable in this town of 300 population after the five hours of explosions touched off by a train derailment Saturday night. No one was killed, but 15 persons were injured. Only three went to hospitals.

Today's total of Red Cross donations remained $8,000 short of the $70,000 target. Almost 89 per cent of the goal has been reached, but the month-long campaign ends Tuesday. The total was jumped to $62,500 this afternoon when T. Eaton Company employees here presented campaign manager E. Heybrook with a cheque for $1,000.

'JACK THE STRANGLER'

Full Moon Tonight May Drive Lunar Maniac to New Murder

LONDON (CP)—Urgent new warnings went out today to all British police that London's "Jack the Strangler," a sex-crazed maniac, may strike again at tonight's full moon. Already investigators had found the remains of six of his victims—and what may be the shattered skull of a seventh.

Police believe the ghastly murders show a pattern of moon madness that could bring another slaying tonight.

They pursued a theory that the strangler at the time of the full moon goes berserk, entices the women into some secluded place, strangles them and assaults them sexually.

Like the notorious Jack the Ripper of the 19th century, the strangler apparently concentrated on fallen women.

He lured young women who walked the back streets or were out for a gay time by asking them to pose for his camera in the nude. Four of the strangler's victims were in their teens or early 20s.

Baffled Scotland Yard ordered the search for the killer redoubled. It also ordered a speedup in the dismantling of the dingy west

London tenement where the victims were found. The back yard was spaded to a depth of five feet. The ramshackle house is in Notting Hill, a hodge-podge district of faded Victorian mansions and near-slums.

The charred remains of two bodies and possibly a third were dug out of the tiny garden of the horror house during the week-end. Another had been found last Tuesday under the floor boards of the ground floor apartment and three more half-nude bodies, believed the killer's most recent victims, were discovered hidden in a papered-over cupboard.

Police speculated that the murderer used the cupboard as a temporary storehouse for the bodies until he could bury them. For that reason, they said, more corpses may be around the house or in the garden.

One of Britain's biggest police nets was out for John Reginald Christie, 55-year-old trucking clerk who had rented the murder flat for 15 years. His wife was among the victims.

While the digging detectives turned up their latest victim—or victims—behind the rotting, three-story house, throngs of Londoners stood fascinated outside, eating ice cream or shellfish.

Police believe the killer buried victim No. 5—found Saturday—six years ago. This may mean he has been strangling and sealing away women during the last six years or more.

Chou En Lai's Proposal Similar to Indian Formula

By JOHN RANDOLPH

TOKYO (AP)—Premier Chou En-lai of China tonight offered a compromise solution to the knotty problem of repatriating Korean war prisoners—the only issue blocking an armistice agreement.

It was the first break in the Reds previously-unyielding demands that all prisoners be returned.

Chou proposed that both sides return those prisoners who insist on going home and hand over the others to a neutral state "to insure a just solution to the question of their repatriation."

He did not propose a neutral state by name, presumably leaving that question to be decided at the armistice site of Panmunjom.

New York stock market tumbled four to five points today under the impact of the new Korea peace overtures. It was one of the worst market breaks in the last two years. (See story, Page 10).

The United Nations walked away from Panmunjom last fall after telling the Reds to accept the principle of giving prisoners their choice of returning home—or come up with an acceptable solution.

Offer Heard in Broadcast

Chou's offer—similar to plans advanced in the United Nations assembly—came in a broadcast heard here over the Communist Peiping radio.

Gen. Mark Clark, UN Far East commander, was not immediately available for comment.

A spokesman said: "We are not selling the statement short but so far it is just a Communist radio broadcast."

The spokesman said as far as he knew no formal communication from Chou had been received.

MIGHT END WAR

Some Allied officers said privately and unofficially that the proposal, if it meant what it seems, might end the Korean war. But they had their fingers crossed and there was a feeling of super caution along the command.

The Reds made an earlier overture Saturday, accepting a Feb. 22 UN proposal for exchange of sick and wounded war prisoners and asking that the truce talks be resumed. The UN has not answered the Saturday proposal.

Chou said tonight: "Both parties... should undertake to repatriate immediately after the cessation of hostilities all those prisoners of war... who insist upon repatriation and to hand over the remaining prisoners of war to a neutral state so as to ensure a just solution to the question of their repatriation."

STILL ADAMANT

However, Chou also said: "We by no means relinquish the principle of release and repatriation of war prisoners without delay after the cessation of hostilities."

"Nor do we acknowledge the assertion of the United Nations command that there are among the prisoners of war individuals who allegedly refuse repatriation."

Chou said the Chinese and North Korean Reds are taking this step to solve the war only because this one item blocks an armistice.

Chou's plan is similar to the Indian proposal to end the war which was submitted in the United Nations last fall and was sharply rejected by the two warring Communist nations and Russia.

The Chinese premier, No. 3 man in the Asian Communist hierarchy, is the one usually selected to make important announcements.

He had just returned to Peiping from Moscow where he attended the funeral of Stalin and signed new economic agreements with Russia.

In his statement tonight, Chou said:

"It is only because the termination of the bloody war in Korea and the peaceful settlement of the Korean question is bound up with the question of the peace and security of the people of the Far East and the world that we take this new step."

He kept some sting in his words—although not as much as the usual Red invective—as he referred to "those captured personnel of our side who, under the intimidation and oppression of the opposite side, are filled with apprehensions and are afraid to return home."

Pavlov Case May Go to Jury On Wednesday

VANCOUVER (CP)—The trial of Walter Pavlov, charged with the gun slaying of banker Sydney Petrie here in 1947, may reach the jury late Wednesday.

Det. Stan Craig told an assize court jury here today he had known Pavlov for "14 or 15 years" and his appearance had changed very little since the last time Craig saw him in downtown Vancouver. The only striking difference noted by the police officer was that Pavlov "pompous style." It now is parted neatly on the right.

"Does the fact that there was a photo of the accused in police records and fingerprints indicate to you that he has been in the toils of the law for some criminal offense?" asked chief defense counsel Thomas Hurley.

Det. Craig agreed that this would generally indicate that he had at one time been arrested and held in custody.

Silent Subjects Pay Homage to Queen Mary

LONDON (CP)—Crowds filed silently through Westminster Hall today to pay a last reverent homage to Queen Mary.

By early afternoon, 4,000 persons an hour, damp from intermittent rain, were entering the hall where the Queen lies in state.

It was expected that by the time the body is removed for the funeral service at St. George's Chapel, Windsor, Tuesday, about 100,000 will have come to say farewell to the 85-year-old Queen who died last Tuesday.

Many of the mourners were elderly persons of Queen Mary's own generation. Police helped one old lady who appeared to be too feeble to walk the 100 yards through the hall.

ROYALTY ARRIVES

The thinning ranks of European royalty began arriving, meanwhile, for Queen Mary's funeral.

Former King Umberto of Italy arrived by plane. Shortly afterward came Prince Bertil of Sweden. Greece's Queen Frederika arrived Sunday and went to Westminster Hall to pay her respects.

Others expected were Crown Prince Olaf of Norway, King Eudoine of Belgium, Queen Juliana of The Netherlands and her husband, Prince Bernhard. Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh were at the airport to greet the royal visitors.

The lying-in-state will continue until midnight tonight. Tuesday the coffin will be taken by car to Windsor, where the funeral service will be conducted by the archbishop of Canterbury at 11 a.m. (3 a.m. PST). A public service will be held in London's stately St. Paul's Cathedral at the same time.

Throughout Sunday night and today, a silent file of mourning Britons moved past the dead queen's coffin as it lay in state in ancient Westminster Hall, adorning the Houses of Parliament.

By dawn, nearly 40,000 persons had passed the candlelit catafalque, resplendent in its purple drapings and silver pall.

QUIET STREETS

Queen Mary herself had made similar mourning pilgrimages to the hall 13 months ago, when her son, King George VI lay in state there.

The coffin was brought to Westminster Hall Sunday, carried through crowded, silent London streets from Marlborough House, where the queen died.

Governor Leads City In Tribute to Queen

Lieutenant-Governor Clarence Wallace, government dignitaries and other public figures will attend a public memorial service for Queen Mary Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in Christ Church Cathedral.

Dean P. R. Beattie will conduct the service. Mayor Claude Harrison and City Council members plan to attend.

Churches of various denominations throughout the city will hold special joint service from 12:15 to 12:45 in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, sponsored by Victoria Ministerial Association.

It is the regular Lenten noon service which on Tuesday will be a memorial to the late queen, Queen Mary.

While there will be no official service at St. Andrew's Cathedral, members of the congregation have been urged to "pray for the Royal Family in their hour of trial."

ALL-TIME MUSICAL SMASH HIT

Oklahoma's 10th Birthday Sparks Star-Studded Shivarree

NEW YORK (AP)—Still whooping it up with the zest of an angel cowboy, the all-time hit musical "Oklahoma!" will stage a round-up party Tuesday in Washington's National Theatre to celebrate its 10th birthday.

"Oklahoma!" has been playing continuously, either on Broadway or on tour across the United States and in Canada and in a dozen or more foreign lands, since its Broadway opening at the St. James Theatre March 31, 1943.

Among the guests when "Oklahoma!" celebrates its 10th anniversary Tuesday will be an after-performance "shivarree" backstage will be composer Richard Rodgers, librettist and lyricist Oscar Hammerstein, and many Broadway and Washington notables. There also will be many alumni of this fabulous musical who found it an open door to stardom in many fields of entertainment.

Among those who were comparative unknowns when they first appeared in "Oklahoma!" and later became stars and featured players are Alfred Drake, Celeste Holm, Bambi Linn, Pamela Britten, David Burns, Murvyn Vye, Betty Jane Wat-collaboration, and it is the bangiest starting off with a bang on record. In its 10 years it's played to more than 20,000,000 people on four continents; it has returned $50,000 for every $1,500 invested in it; it's set the Broadway record with 2,248 performances; and the Duke and Duchess of Windsor have seen "Oklahoma!" was their first—it eight times.

ON THE TIMES

By ART STOTT

Once, years ago, when we had out-of-town visitors, the whole family and our guests trooped down to the Parliament Buildings. By special permission we were allowed to climb up to the lookout place under the top cupola.

Two of the ladies in the party didn't make the climb. The last stairway's narrow and one of them was too tight a fit. The other looked down before she reached the final flight and figured, like the song about Kansas City, that she'd come about as far as she could go.

On that trip I came as close as I've ever been to the statue of Captain George Vancouver on top of the cupola. That I know, I've been told. But except for the steeplejack who keeps it in shape and the seagulls which whitewash it, probably nobody's seen our George face to face for several generations.

The family objected when, on that long-ago-visit, I wanted to climb out and around to see how the figure looked. Wish they'd let me while I still had nerve enough for tricks like that.

Still, if I want to see how the sculptor, or the carver, or whoever makes statues, visualized the navigator and explorer, I can go across to Vancouver and look for the figure placed on the north side of the city hall, gazing across Burrard Inlet.

Through a Glass Brightly

Or I can wait until the Seattle Lions complete the project they have in mind to erect one on that city's Beach Drive and to install a pay telescope beside it, where an inquisitive person can put his eye to the tube and take in the distant scenery.

There's something attractive in the Seattle scheme. It shows an interest in historical features which far too many Victorians don't share. And the telescope is a good idea, too. Maybe the local Lions can follow up the plan and put a spyglass on the Parliament Buildings' jaws. Then visitors could point it at Captain Vancouver and check his appearance atop the cupola with pictures they have in the archives.

Only they shouldn't make the telescope stationary. They ought to be able to move it from place to place, so it could be carried to Beacon Hill Park occasionally and mounted near the Burns Monument. There must be thousands of people who'd like to see what's on top of that big pedestal. Given enough magnification, they'd be able to.

And while the historical spirit is stirred, it might be possible to stimulate local interest in more figures. There should be lots of statuary lying around the bombed cities of Europe now. It ought to be going cheap. With a little ingenuity, some informed local historian might locate several pieces that could be acquired—and I'm not thinking of that Queen Victoria number from Ireland—and adopt them to local purposes.

'John the Greek'

A nicely chiseled piece of masonry with a strong Greek cast of countenance and Spanish clothes could be set up on the Breakwater with a small inscription stating that a certain Apollonios Valerianos, sometimes known as Juan de Fuca, may have passed the entrance to the Strait in 1592. The story was good enough for Charles William Eakley to hang a name on when he came this way in 1787. The inscription shouldn't be too definite, though.

There are all sorts of early navigators we could honor—and nobody knows exactly how they looked. Almost any statuary would do. Think of the tourist attraction.

WHEAT PRICE TALK 'NOT TOO HOPEFUL'

WASHINGTON (RUP).—A crucial week in the dragging negotiations for a new international wheat agreement began today with U.S. delegate True D. Morse "not too hopeful" about the outcome.

Morse, undersecretary of agriculture, was asked if he thought agreement would be reached on renewal of the pact which expires July 31, or if a continued deadlock would call a halt to negotiations. He replied: "It could go either way."

He made plain that he saw no easy way to resolve the differences between the 42 importing and four exporting nations represented in the agreement.

Reports trickling out of the secret sessions indicated that the United States, the leading exporter under the pact, and Great Britain, the leading importer, were holding the firmest lines on price demands.

Under the current agreement, exporters United States, Australia, Canada and France are pledged to sell wheat for not more than $1.80 a bushel. However, world prices have gone up since the pact was negotiated four years ago and exporting nations now feel that level is too low to continue.

Attlee Appendix Out, Health Satisfactory

HEARING-AID OF THE WEEK

By B. S. H. TYE

THE TRANSISTOR

The transistor, which has recently been perfected for use in hearing-aids and which operates for a few cents per month, giving very clear, noise-free hearing, is made of Germanium. Germanium, according to a recent "Cleveland Plain Dealer" article, can be recovered from coal after careful burning at a low temperature. One coal company is prospecting coal fields to determine what kinds of coal with Germanium content are available. The U.S. government is searching ash pits and smokestacks of big coal users for sizeable deposits. The United States Bureau of Mines reported its quest of ash pits and smokestacks will be concentrated on central station power plants which burn at least 100,000,000 tons of coal a year.

Who would ever have thought that the combings of ash pits and smokestacks would enable the Hard-of-Hearing to enjoy conversation, music, lectures, etc., better than ever before? Come in and realize it for yourself at Victoria Hearing-Aid Co., 326 Yarrow Building, 625 Fort St., Victoria, B.C.

Family Will Benefit From Queen's Fortune

BY ROBERT JONES

LONDON (AP).—Speculation has developed that Queen Mary left large fortunes to several less-affluent members of the Royal Family, including Princess Margaret.

Other probable heirs would be the Queen's two surviving sons, the Dukes of Windsor and Gloucester; her daughter, the Princess Royal, and her daughter-in-law, the Duchess of Kent.

The wills of royalty are never published, so the size of the Queen's estate and her distribution of it will never be publicly known.

Queen Mary, however, had long been reputed to be the wealthiest member of the Royal Family, and it was considered likely that she would provide for relatives without large personal fortunes.

LARGE FORTUNE

Queen Elizabeth has an assured annual income from the state of £475,000.

Some reports have estimated the fortune of the Queen Grandmother at between £3,000,000 and £7,000,000.

Since her husband, King George V, died 17 years ago, she received an annual grant of £70,000 and is believed to have inherited the bulk of the large fortune left by her husband, who received it from his father, Edward VII, and his grand-mother, Queen Victoria.

Most members of the Royal Family are taken care of by the civil list, the nation's wage bill to royalty voted at the beginning of every reign. Civil list incomes are not taxed.

HARD HIT

The Duchess of Kent—widow of Queen Mary's youngest son—is particularly hard hit. As she is not officially a member of British royalty, she gets nothing from the civil list.

Queen Mary was known to be fond of her beautiful and fashionable daughter-in-law, mother of two children, and may have left her enough to take financial worries off her shoulders.

Both Princess Margaret and the Princess Royal get £6,000 a year from the civil list at present. Princess Margaret's income will be increased to £15,000 when she marries.

The young Princess hasn't many money troubles at the moment—she has no household of her own to keep up. At present she lives with her mother.

TAX TAIL

The Princess Royal, widow of the Earl of Harewood, received a little more than £100,000 out of what was once a £2,500,000 fortune when her husband died six years ago. Taxes reduced the fortune.

Recently, her son, the present Earl of Harewood, had to sell large parts of the family estates because he hadn't the money for their upkeep.

Of Queen Mary's two surviving sons, the Duke of Gloucester gets £35,000 a year from the civil list, but the Duke of Windsor has not been on the list since he abdicated in 1938.

ANNUAL GRANT

It was rumored, although never confirmed, that the late King George VI made his brother an annual allowance which has been kept up by Queen Elizabeth.

Although members of the Royal Family pay no income tax, only the sovereign is exempt from inheritance taxes.

Death duties could take at least 75 per cent of the fortune Queen Mary amassed.

'RUBBISH... A LIE'

Palace Spokesman Curtly Squelches Windsor Rumor

LONDON (AP).—A second London newspaper, The News Chronicle, today urges the Royal Family to "bury the past" and invite the Duke and Duchess of Windsor to the Coronation June 2.

But a spokesman for Buckingham Palace, the Queen's official residence, curtly denied press reports that court circles at present are considering such an invitation to the Duke and his American-born wife.

"It's all a lie, a big flat lie," the spokesman said tartly. "I shouldn't even entertain such rubbish."

The News Chronicle, in a front-page editorial, suggests that times have changed, since Windsor abdicated the throne December 11, 1936, to marry the "woman I love"—American-born Mrs. Wallis Simpson.

"We believe that the British people of today would welcome the duchess alongside her husband."

Crowd Prays, Helpless, as Flames Kill 4

KINGSTON, Ont. (RUP).

Two elderly couples perished early Sunday when fire swept a two-storey frame rooming house while helpless neighbors knelt and prayed on the sidewalk.

William Bowman, 84, a Boer War veteran; his wife, Anna May, 59, died in the flaming house.

Two other persons, Cecil Fox, 47, and Margaret Gray, 14, escaped unhurt. The owners of the house, Mr. and Mrs. Berton Gray, were absent when the fire broke out in the kitchen shortly after midnight and spread to oily rags on the floor.

Miss Gray discovered the blaze and awakened Fox but the dense smoke prevented them from reaching the Bownmans and Blairs.

The bodies of the two elderly couples, who apparently had suffocated while trying to crawl to safety, were turned almost beyond recognition.

Firemen fought the flames for two hours in the rain. Helpless crowds lined the street and many persons knelt to pray on the sidewalk.

Czech Court Jails Eight Jehovah's Witnesses

VIENNA (AP).

Prague radio announced Sunday night that a Czechoslovak court has sentenced eight leaders of Jehovah's Witnesses—a religious sect—to prison terms ranging from five to 18 years.

They were accused of "spying" for cent years. It has been barred from several Communist lands.

The sect has been the target of bitter attack in recent years. It has been barred from several Communist lands.

Passion plays of the 15th century were so well attended that armed bands of citizens were required to patrol deserted streets during performances in order to protect the property of theatre-goers.

The broadcast said the defendants spied for an American agent in Switzerland who also was identified as a member of the sect.

They also were accused of smuggling "cosmopolitan literature" into Czechoslovakia.

Score Killed in Three-Train Wreck

Dramatic air view shows shattered skeletons of 19 railroad coaches, in which at least 23 persons died when derailment accident tangled one freight and two passenger trains near Conneaut, O., late Saturday. Today, tired rescue workers are still digging frantically in the wreckage, from which 22 bodies have been removed. At least one more victim is known to be in the wreck. Accident happened when bent rail threw 80-mph passenger flier off track, into freight train, which in turn derailed another fast passenger train on four-track section of New York Central line.

McCarthy Goes Where Angels Fear to Tread

Usurps Ike's Powers, Makes Deal To Halt Greek Shipments to Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Members of the Senate investigations sub-committee learned with some surprise of chairman Joseph McCarthy's announcement Saturday night of an agreement with Greek ship owners to halt all trade with Red China, North Korea and Soviet Far Eastern ports.

McCarthy disclosed Saturday that an agreement had been obtained from the Greek owners of 242 merchant ships to stop hauling cargoes of any kind to those areas or from one Communist port to another in any part of the world.

The Wisconsin Republican said he had not consulted the state department or any of the executive agencies about it.

"I didn't want any interference by anyone," he explained. McCarthy's announcement created a stir inasmuch as under the constitution the conduct of foreign affairs is lodged in the president. Whether an agreement between a senatorial sub-committee and foreign ship owners would, under the law, be considered an infringement upon this presidential prerogative is a question likely to arouse considerable debate.

Christmas Hill Reds Repelled In Heavy Snow

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN

SEOUL (AP)—South Korean troops threw back a Chinese Red drive on Christmas Hill on the eastern front in a driving snowfall today as United States Marines dug in firmly in bloody outpost, Vegas in the west.

Some 300 Reds jabbed 50 yards beyond Allied advance defense lines on a 350-yard front west of Christmas Hill, which is west of the Mundung Valley. South Koreans drove them back, killing or wounding 100 Chinese.

Entrenched marines on Vegas had won back the outpost at dawn Sunday after being knocked off three times in the Reds' spring fever drive on the western front last week.

PRONG DRIVE

Wary marines smashed a three-pronged Red drive on Vegas late Sunday and broke up a Red force massing for another attack Sunday night with a thundering curtain of artillery fire.

In the air, U.S. Sabre jet pilots reported probable destruction of one Communist MIG jet and another damaged.

In a big day Sunday, Sabre pilots reported shooting down four MIGs and damaging a fifth. Lieut. Col. George Jones of Bero Beach, Fla., got one MIG, his fifth, making him the 30th U.S. jet ace of the war.

ALBANIAN REDS TORTURE PRELATES

Catholic Bishop Flayed Alive

ROME (AP)—The news bulletin of an exiled Albanian political group said Saturday that five of six Albanian Roman Catholic bishops have been tortured to death by Communist authorities in their homeland.

Flamuri, organ of the Albanian Agrarian Democratic party, published here, said that since the Communists usurped power in Albania all religious denominations have been persecuted ruthlessly.

Catholic bishops put to death after parts of his body had been by torture, it said, included Archbishop Nicola Vincenz. The Abbot of Mirdita, Msgr. Prenushi of Durres Durazzo, Francois Gjini, was flayed alive, said Flamuri, and Bishop George Volaj of Zadrime was tortured by being put in a nailed studded barrel which was rolled until he died.

RIGHT THROUGH — YATES TO VIEW

Mr. Winch and the CCF

OBSERVERS OF THE LOCAL political scene might be forgiven for exclaiming today, with Macduff, "Here is confusion doubly confounded!" To the turmoil created by the sudden crack-up of the House has been added the dramatic and totally unexpected resignation of Mr. Harold Winch, for 15 years leader of the CCF party in the Legislature.

It is feckless of the party to insist that everything is harmonious; that all is lovely in the garden. Mr. Winch and his whip, Mr. Turner, on Saturday morning, staged an acrimonious debate in the legislative press gallery, before eight newspaper representatives. That bad blood existed between the two was painfully obvious.

What, then, was the reason for the sudden blow-up?

Since the CCF is being notoriously tight-lipped about the affair, we can only conjecture. But two items in Mr. Winch's statement concerning his visit to Government House might provide clues to the sharp split in CCF ranks:

(1) His remark that the visit was made "strictly on a personal basis" and that he would "accept full responsibility for this presentation to the Lieutenant-Governor." The wording of this passage would seem to indicate that Mr. Winch had been upbraided for not consulting more fully with his CCF colleagues.

(2) His statement that, if called to form a government, he "would deal strictly with public business and not introduce before an election what might be termed a 'Socialist' policy."

There is a third explanation, provided by Mr. Winch himself, in answer to reporters' questions: he's tired.

While this will be accepted, since Mr. Winch has been working hard, it would appear that the second statement is the one most likely to cause disruption in the inner circles of the party.

It is no secret that, in his two decades in the House, Mr. Winch has undergone a familiar metamorphosis, from a fiery-eyed radical to a moderate socialist. The restraints of government make this inevitable, as we have seen in that other CCF stronghold, Saskatchewan, and as we have seen in Great Britain.

It is also no secret that there are, in what might be called the "Colin Cameron wing" of the party, elements to whom Mr. Winch's apparent pledge to abdicate Socialist policies for the sake of providing a government, even on a temporary basis, would be gall and wormwood. They remember Harold Winch from the days when he said, on a public platform, that the new social order would be enforced by the RCMP, if necessary, and that is precisely the kind of fighting talk they like. They find it difficult to recognize as leader a Harold Winch who would suggest, in all sincerity, that the business of the province comes ahead of the party; and that if compromise is necessary to effect that business, he is prepared to assume responsibility.

What will be the upshot of this schism?

It is quite clear that the CCF is at the crossroads. It may be that the militant wing will attempt, at the forthcoming convention, to stage a coup and set the party back on its original path of dynamic reform. Or calmer heads will insist that the CCF without Winch is no party at all, and the leader will be returned with stronger support than ever. If Mr. Winch is not actually as sick as he believes himself to be, and is able after two weeks' rest to return to the fray, we feel confident that he will emerge from the forthcoming convention with more solid backing than ever before. He has proved, in this session as in many others, that he is an outstanding Opposition leader, wise in the ways of government and human conduct. While his political beliefs are not those of this newspaper, we have on many occasions admired the tenacity and cogency with which he argued those beliefs.

The simple truth, as the CCF will find out between now and next election day, is that there is no one else of his stature in their party.

A Change in Policy?

TWO ABRUPT MOVES BY THE Communist world last Saturday startled the west and raised quick hopes that perhaps the new regime of Premier Malenkov may produce a new policy at home and abroad.

Of prior concern to the democracies was the announcement by the North Koreans that they were favorable to immediate exchange of sick and wounded prisoners of war, and that they would like to see the armistice talks reopened at Panmunjom. On humanitarian grounds alone, of course, such a message would bring great feelings of relief and gratification to the nations whose forces are represented in the United Nations effort in Korea. But the implications are still more optimistic.

The sole remaining major point of disagreement when the Panmunjom talks broke off some months ago was the matter of prisoner repatriation. The Communists demanded that all prisoners be repatriated, regardless of whether or not they had expressed a desire to be sent home. The United Nations, having in mind the thousands of Chinese and North Korean prisoners who had said they would rather die than be sent back to Communist control, insisted that repatriation be on a voluntary basis. Many of the prisoners held by the U.N. forces were in reality refugees, who had left their own lines on the promise of humane treatment and freedom from Communist oppression.

The Communist offer to exchange sick and wounded prisoners therefore poses the double question—will they agree to carry this out on a voluntary basis, and will this same principle then be applied to the problem of general prisoner repatriation which is the only stumbling block to a Korean truce?

Today's statement by China's Premier Chou En-lai gives promise that some such arrangement may be made. His suggestion is in line with the compromise solution advanced last fall.

The North Korean overture is naturally assumed to have been prompted by Moscow. With the Communist cause dependent largely on the support, moral or otherwise, of the Soviet, no move of such potential significance could have been made without Kremlin approval and probably instigation.

Support for speculation that the Kremlin, under its new regime, may be changing its policy, was provided by the second promising event. Premier Malenkov announced an unprecedented general amnesty that presumably would free many thousands—perhaps tens of thousands—of Soviet prisoners and corrective camps. The pardons would apply to all who are serving terms of less than five years who have not committed great crimes against the state, to women with children under 10, to persons under 18 and men and women over 55 and 50 respectively.

Certain other categories also were included, which should result in an impressive total of persons who now will return to their homes and presumably take up normal lives again. How many would actually be affected was difficult to determine. Western estimates of Russia's total prisoner population, including those in labor camps and similar institutions, have run into the millions.

Whether the move was a case of genuine redressment of the Communist state's hitherto harsh treatment of its subjects, or whether it was dictated merely by political expediency to quell unrest or establish a new negotiating position, was equally unclear.

But events do appear to be moving. Hope may replace stalemate.

Hard to Admire This

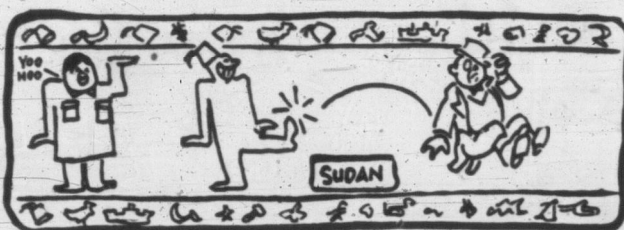

THE IDEAL OF TWO CHICKENS in every pot might well be the goal of the labor dispute at Stratford—a dispute which involves a large chick hatchery. But the current strike, like so many other strikes, has elements that operate to the disadvantage of the worker.

Because picket lines would not open to permit essential employees to enter the hatchery, 60,000 baby chicks have had to be gassed for lack of anyone to feed them. That seems to be a callous act that will win no public sympathy for the cause of those responsible. Not only are wages being lost by the stop-work program, but meals for Canadians are being lost through the blind operation of the strike technique.

Undoubtedly negotiation will ultimately end the strike. Could it not have been permitted to be effective before 60,000 tiny lives were snuffed out, 60,000 potential meals destroyed, 60,000 reasons for existence denied?

Studying the Hieroglyphics

Chips

BY DAVID BROCK

WE were talking last time about repetition. People telling you a story more than once, and all that. And blow me down if I didn't forget to tell you one of the finest stories about repeated stories. When James Bridle, the playwright, was studying medicine in Glasgow, there was a young doctor or student with what seems to me an unusual sense of humor. His jokes were so quiet and so individual that to many they were imperceptible or else merely eccentric.

Robert Graves, in his small book on the future of humor, "Mrs. Fisher," tells us of many such jokes and jesters among the Welsh and the Chinese. Graves learnt quite a bit about dead quiet jokes from his Irish Uncle Max, too.

WELL, I don't know if this Scottish doctor was a Welsh Highlander or a Chinese Highlander or what, but he did fine, in an independent way that filled himself with secret laughter and fills me now with open enjoyment... admiring enjoyment, and envy. His private jest of the repeated story was entirely his own invention.

When anyone told him a long, complicated and supposedly sidesplitting anecdote, he would thank the man very much. Later the same day he would buttol the humorist. At enormous length and in crazy detail, he would tell the man's own story back at him. Each time the man said "But..." he would be silenced with fresh details and build up. After the climax the man would say "But hi, look here, that's my story. I told it to you this morning." And this very peculiar Scot would say "Yes, I know." And walk away, betraying not a clue of any emotion or any possible reason for his little game. Daft? Maybe. But in the right way, surely.

NORMAL, ISN'T IT?

TALKING OF "Yes, I know." I hope I've not told you the story about the dead horse. If I have, it was years ago, and it's time that horse was trotted out again. A pal of mine was walking home one night and he met a couple of hefty acquaintances who were laboriously trying to drag a small dead horse along the street. He asked what they were planning to use it for, and one of them said "Well, you see, I'm sharing a flat with the most annoying man. Every time I tell him something interesting or funny or important or new, he says 'Yes, I know.' In the broadest way. Even when he couldn't possibly know. So I'm going to put this dead horse in the bathroom. And when the chap rushes in and screams at me 'Hi, there's a dead horse in the bathroom!' I'll say 'Yes, I know.'"

GRAND OLD MISTAKE

GOING back to James Bridle, whose real name is Mavor: he says that an uncle of his, a Professor Mavor of Toronto, was "Canada's Grand Old Man." (I've forgotten the dates... maybe the 1880's and 90's.) That's rather a bold statement, even from a nephew across the seas. Maybe he was more the Grand Old Man of certain parts of Toronto. However, let us press on to his chief claim to Canada's affection. It was he (according to his nephew) who really brought the Doughboys here. And if that isn't being a grand old man in a grand old way, what is? Still, I doubt if he is regarded as the Grand Old Man of the Kootenay, or even the Grand Old Man of Grand Forks, B.C. We Canadians were always an ungrateful bunch. Past favors, even from past Mavors, are nothing to us.

DECADENCE

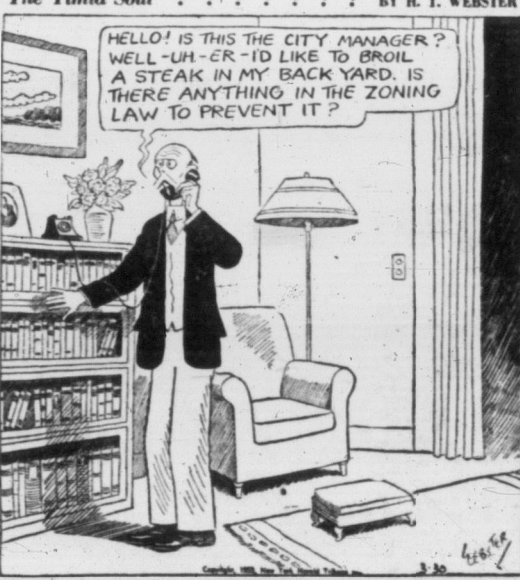

THERE was an interesting article in The Times (London) about the decline and fall of music in Vienna. One symptom of this decay (said the anonymous writer) was the use of the contralto voice with symphonic music. Supposing it is normal to use a female singer, or any singer, with such music at all (which is debatable), to prefer a contralto to a soprano for this purpose is decadent, said the critic. Maybe it is. But two points arise here.

First, it is possible that his two main examples, Mahler and Berg, each had a contralto girl-friend, and was thinking more of pleasing her than of pleasing an audience... these things happen all the time, especially in casting plays. Also, the decadent menace of the contralto isn't a very real one after all.

BECAUSE genuine contralto voices hardly exist... you can never find them when you need them. It isn't just being able to sing a low note. As with the basso, the real basso, being a contralto is a matter of a certain quality, not just pitch. At most musical festivals, you will get a large entry in the contralto class and not one contralto among them, though the low setting of the test piece fits their vocal range all right. I myself can sing as low a note (though not so good a one) as Chaliapin ever could. I once equalled the lowest note of that foghorn chap in the Don Cossacks. But that doesn't make me a basso. I'm a baritone, and that is that.

The Timid Soul

BY H. T. WEBSTER

From Our Files

March 30, 1893 —

The Provincial Parliament "began to rush things again." Nineteen bills were advanced a stage, six were passed and three new ones introduced.

March 30, 1913 —

Preliminary meetings were held recently with a view to forming an organization to be called the "Liberty League" to protect Victoria citizens against blue laws and prudish regulations.

March 30, 1933 —

City Council adopted as policy the pegging of the 1933 civic tax rate at 41 mills which would cut the total bill for Victoria by $60,000.

As Our Readers See It

SAME DIGNITY

We have read with much interest, press comments concerning the lack of dignity existing in the proceedings of the legislature and the time being wasted in proceeding with the business of the province.

I would like to point out that during the days of the Coalition government, there was only an opposition of eight members and now there are 27 on the opposition benches, nearly four times as many to criticize the government. It has been most noticeable throughout the Throne, budget, and estimate debates that the opposition members, especially the CCF, have talked to the optimum degree, making the Social Credit government's task a very much more difficult one than need be.

My sympathies go out to the reporters who have to sit through the opposition's haranguing. Reporting can be most boring, but I would respectfully suggest to them that they be fair and tolerant when portraying the minor incidents of the legislature.

It has been my experience to witness exchange of words on minor points in the House, but the newspapers have enlarged on them to give the population the impression that dignity is lacking in this session. Believe me, there is no more lack of dignity now than ever before.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS

In 1763, 70,000 French and French Metis in Quebec became British subjects by conquest.

In 1774, these individuals were granted religious freedom which allows them to worship as they please but does not allow them to join any religious group of a nature subversive to the state.

There are laws for the punishment of such evildoers, chief of which is the Conventicle Act. It forbids more than two people of one religion to meet together for subversive purposes. The last Quebec census gives us 3,887,000 population of whom five out of every six persons are descendants of the original French settlers. The balance, 650,000 are chiefly of British descent. The hand of the conqueror has dealt very gently with the people of Quebec.

In 1947-48 there were 504,290 Catholics, but only 64,719 Protestants enrolled in Quebec schools, which cost Quebec province $26,800,000. In addition, 53,394 pupils were enrolled in 529 private schools which apparently received no grant.

The Roman Catholic schools in B.C. are private schools.

The Roman Catholic church insists that children from mixed marriages of Protestants and Catholics must become Catholics. Is that freedom of worship or is that a subversive edict? The Protestants in Quebec could thus disappear in one generation if they did not guard freedom of worship.

There is an ancient British law which the Catholics ignore. It is a just law and not subversive. It states that the wife and children shall be recognized as belonging to the church of the father, for state purposes. That law, if adhered to, guarantees freedom of worship for all people, and should be sufficient for any decent citizen of the British Empire.

SOMEWHAT ANNOYED

Your editorial in tonight's Times (March 26) is just about the worst you have published yet. It simply reeks of "Opposition" and is nothing more or less than Liberal campaign propaganda.

Acting More Efficiently?

BY WALTER LIPPMANN, From Washington

THE safest estimate one can make now of the new line of propaganda from Moscow and of the small but unprecedented conciliatory actions is, it seems to me, that the Malenkov administration is acting more efficiently than its predecessor. There is no reason whatever for thinking that there is any change in the strategic objective of foreign policy as Stalin expounded it—namely, the consolidation of the Communist orbit and the disintegration of the non-Communist coalition. But there are indications at least that this policy is now being administered with more energy, more imagination, more discipline, and more consistency.

If these indications are correct—which no one can know as yet—the diplomatic action of the Soviet Union in the world will almost certainly become much more formidable than it was during the declining years of Stalin. For invariably in those later years the brutality of the Soviet tactics provoked the antidote to the Soviet purposes. But there are indications at least that this policy is now being administered with more energy, more imagination, more discipline, and more consistency.

UNPALATABLE The Marshall Plan, NATO, rearmament, have been one and all extremely difficult and unpalatable projects for the war-weary democracies to undertake. Without the incitement and provocation of Soviet tactics in Czechoslovakia, Berlin, Korea no one can be sure that the consolidation of the West, which is so necessary to its ultimate survival as a civilized society would have been carried as far as it has been.

This has long been so obvious that one of the greatest mysteries of Moscow has been why Stalin did not change his tactics in order the more easily to achieve his aims—why, on the contrary, he always did something stupidly provocative and unprofitable for himself which set off the fire alarms just when everyone was quietly going to sleep.

The most usual solution offered for this mystery has been that the Soviet despotism requires for its own survival in Russia an atmosphere of tensions and danger emanating from the outside world. This theory of Stalin's conduct holds that the peaceful "co-existence" which Stalin talked about was not in fact compatible with the maintenance of his iron dictatorship inside of Russia.

If the theory is true, then Malenkov must before too long break the spell which he has been weaving since his

A great many people feel that it is time we had a publication in British Columbia that is not controlled by the old parties; a publication that will print the truth and not a biased, twisted and garbled travesty of the truth to try and fool the people.

Your editorial refers to Premier Bennett's "taunts and jibes": in other articles Premier Bennett's "silence" has been under attack. What do you mean? It simply points to the fact that whatever the premier has done, or not done, is wrong anyway in the eyes of the editor of the Times. Also, in my opinion, the reference to "taunts and jibes" had better have been left out of your editorial, as reports of the sessions of the legislature have contained repeated reports of the taunts and jibes from the members of the Opposition, so continuous as to disgust and sicken the public.

However, it is quite apparent that what Premier Bennett and his government is doing, or had done, has certainly met with the approval of the majority of the people—and the result of an election will prove that in no uncertain terms. People think for themselves nowadays. Premier Bennett has shown great courage, and has earned the respect of the people of British Columbia. They will respond accordingly when the time comes to register their vote.

ANTI-TIRADE

Mr. Pepper's tirade of March 26 against Mr. Cressall, Lord Tweedsmuir and the Bible, even asserting that there is no God, is a classic example of presumption gone mad. The testimony of innumerable personages of eminence in scholarship of the arts and sciences, commerce and public life, etc., is that the Bible is beyond doubt the Word of God written. Just what qualifications does Mr. Pepper possess that entitle him to sit in judgment on his illustrious betters?

Yes, the Bible has a great deal to say about immorality and crime of all sorts, but this critic blissfully ignores the precepts of wisdom and virtue given, as correctives to overcome our shortcomings, and when it charts a way of life (no less for the nation than the individual) how to prevent war and the atrocities he complains of, one cannot blame God for these things, because they are the direct result of disobedience. We have asked for it.

If Mr. Pepper would read the Bible intelligently instead of fanatically criticizing and scoffing he would confess with deep humility that everyday occurrences prove conclusively that there IS a God. No better proof is needed. The Bible dictum is, "The fool hath said in his heart there is no God."

LOUD AND LONG

No need for the mild sarcasm in reporting the "very British" applause tendered lovely little Barbara Ann when she arrived at the Empress.

There is nothing "discreet and proper" about very British applause, as any one who has witnessed (and heard) it can testify.

E. S. CAREY,

936 Collinson Street.

NEUTRALIZED

Stalin's tactics did much to neutralize the influence which the Soviet power and the Communist ideology would otherwise have exerted. A change of the tactics, in the sense that Malenkov has been suggesting, would—as it reduced the fear of a total war—enhance considerably the power of the Soviet Union in the cold war.

If this is the situation which is developing on the other side of the line, there is much to be done on this side of the line to meet it. Nothing big or important can or should now be done. I would guess, with the Soviet Union itself. This is not the time to make offers or proposals or challenges about Korea, Austria, disarmament and the like.

This is a time to listen rather than to talk, and to meet the overtures from Moscow with requests which the Soviet government can easily grant if it means business, which it will reject only if it does not mean business.

Allore Flatly Denies Receiving 'Kickbacks'

REGINA (CP)—Michael F. Allore, general manager of the Saskatchewan government insurance office, Saturday repeated his denial that he had ever received any money from Financial Agencies Limited.

He testified before the legislative committee which is investigating an affidavit sworn by Joseph O. Rawluk alleging that his insurance firm paid commission kickbacks to Mr. Allore and provincial treasurer Clarence Fines on business placed through the company by Mr. Allore.

Earlier in the hearing both Mr. Fines and Mr. Allore denied the allegation under oath.

Saturday Mr. Allore said: "I have never received any money from Financial Agencies."

Questioned by his counsel, D. G. McLeod, concerning a $90 cheque made out by Mr. Rawluk and bearing the endorsement of Mr. Allore and William George, Regina club steward, Mr. Allore said he still thought the signature on the cheque was his but he did not recall Mr. George cashing this cheque.

He said he had not recognized the name of William George when Allore gave his previous testimony. Had it been "William George" he would have recognized it, he said, as the club steward was the only man of that name he was acquainted with.

When he took the stand Mr. Allore told the committee again that he had no recollection whatsoever of making out the document known as exhibit R. The affidavit alleges that some of the figures on this document represent kickbacks owing to Mr. Fines and Mr. Allore. Mr. Allore has testified the

Chlorodont—in 60 days—brought new mouth health to 158 children at Boys Town

At Father Flanagan's Boys Town, Chlorodont proves twice as effective!

In addition Chlorodont destroys mouth odors, fights tooth decay, keeps teeth cleanest.

University dental experts compared the cleansing action of white, ammoniated and chlorophyll dentifrices. 395 comparisons proved that Chlorodont's patented cleansing agent kept teeth cleanest!

Scientists compared Chlorodont with a nationally-known non-chlorophyll toothpaste—found Chlorodont's special chlorophyll formula kept twice as many people free from mouth odors for up to four hours!

Lever Brothers Limited guarantees Chlorodont to do more for you than any other dentifrice—to give you a

In the first major research on chlorophyll toothpaste, dentists at famous Boys Town, Neb., discovered that Chlorodont brings "striking" improvement in mouth health.

The dramatic Boys Town study of gingivitis—a wide-spread mouth disorder—proves that Chlorodont can bring healthier mouths to millions!

Boys Town co-operated in this research wholly in the interest of child health. Over 400 boys took part. Most of them had gingivitis. One group brushed their teeth only with Chlorodont. A similar group used only a fine white toothpaste.

Results of this research appear in The Journal of Periodontology: In just two months, 78% of the boys using Chlorodont showed dramatic improvement in mouth health. Chlorodont was proved twice as effective as the white toothpaste for quickly reducing gingivitis!

Chlorodont combats decay, too. See your dentist if mouth troubles persist. Use Chlorodont regularly! Buy it today!

SOUTH AFRICAN GULF WIDENING

Most Whites Agree With Segregation But Fear Consequences of Malan Methods

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

JOHANNESBURG (AP)—The battle cries of white supremacy which dominate the South African general election campaign have widened the gulf between races. Fear and passion stalk the land over this issue as the tempo of campaigning nears its April 15 climax.

Law-abiding supporters and opponents of the government alike seemed distressed as musclemen continued to break up opposition meetings with eggs, tomatoes and stones.

The race-proud government of Prime Minister Daniel Malan meantime sent shivers down the nation's spine by charging non-white leaders have threatened to "kill all Europeans . . . train armies in the night . . . shed blood . . ."

Non-white leaders themselves deny the charges, asserting they have forewarned the use of violence as a method of political struggle.

WHITES AGREE
Basically all whites in this strategic chunk of the British Commonwealth want the same thing—maintenance of the present master-servant relationship. Their prosperity and comfort depend on it.

And just about all the whites agree with Malan's theory of segregation. About half the country's whites differ from Malan over the way the Nationalists have set out to stay bosses.

The Nationalists frankly favor a stern rule to sort and separate the races, to keep non-whites "in their places" and so "save white South Africa."

Their solution, for example, to attack mounting native crime: Hire more cops, build more jails. The united party, led by J. G. N. Strauss, has promised to try to take race relations out of party politics if it is elected.

BIG BUSINESS
Malan's opponents broadly represent the interests of industries and big business. In general, there is the basis of the conflict in their race politics with those of the Nationalists, who mainly speak for Agrarian landed interests.

On the whole, the industrialists want a stable, contented and efficient labor force, whereas the farmers prefer migrant native workers. The industrialists do not want to end South Africa's color bars, but would be ready to give the non-whites more scope in education, housing and medical services.

This prospect alarms the farmers, who feel they cannot compete for workers in the labor market even now.

MAYOR'S BALL
VANCOUVER (CP)—The second annual mayor's ball to be held April 17 again will turn over all monetary proceeds to the British Empire Games committee for the games here in 1954. Mayor Fred Hume and Mrs. Hume are inviting other mayors and reeves, with members of the legislature.

Promotion Given Victoria Naval Man, R. Thompson
CPO Ross Edward Thompson, 32, of 972 Dunsmuir, has been promoted to the rank of acting commissioned boatswain, RCN, naval headquarters announced today.

Commissioned bos'n Thompson joined the navy as an ordinary seaman in April, 1939. His first ship was the destroyer HMCS Ottawa, in which he served until early 1940. He served a short time in the corvette HMCS Prescott. After two years ashore in Newfoundland and Halifax, Mr. Thompson joined his third ship, HMCS Sorel, a corvette, and was advanced to the rank of PO while serving in her. His last wartime ship was the frigate Monnow, in which he served until June, 1945. He has served on ships and ashore since the war and is now taking specialized courses in the U.K. on completion of which he will be appointed to the aircraft carrier HMCS Magnificent.

Adanacs in Upset Win Over Wests

A major soccer upset took place Saturday when Adanacs downed Victoria West, 2-1, to move into the semi-finals of the Jackson Cup competition against Civil Service.

Winner of the West-Civil Service semifinal will meet Canadian Scottish in the finals.

West took the lead when Paddy Woods, Adanacs, attempted to clear but his kick went by goalie John Moss. Bill Johnson got the equalizer by heading in a corner kick and Tommy Fallon netted the winner by heading in a pass from Johnson.

The two teams had previously played to a 2-2 tie after overtime.

Esquimalt defeated Canadian Scottish, 3-0, in a league contest at Heywood Park Sunday which featured end-to-end play and kept both goalies busy.

Charlie Constable netted two counters and Gordie Duncan added a singleton for the victorious dockyard squad.

Ted Clarke, of Seattle, won the "A" section of the Pacific Northwest Squash Championships, which concluded at the Broughton Street courts Sunday.

Clarke, top seeded in the tournament and ranked among the first 10 squash players in United States, downed Bob Calwell, Seattle, in straight games, 15-5, 15-13, 15-12, for the championship.

Jim Mackin, of Vancouver, took the B division by defeating Ed Gudewill, also of Vancouver, 15-7, 15-12, 11-15, 15-8, in the first all-Canadian final in the history of the tourney.

The bad news, although it is too early in the season for it to mean much, was that the Tyees were clobbered 16-1 Saturday by the Pacific Coast Seattle Rainiers in the Tyees' first pre-season exhibition game.

The good news was that the Portland Beavers were sending southpaw flinger Ben Lorino back to the Tyees.

Lorino, who won 24 games for the Tyees last season to lift the major pitching honors in the league, was scheduled to report to camp today.

MONIZ SOLD

However, outfielder Bob Moniz will not be back with the Tyees this season as he has been sold to Portland, blasting his way into the Beaver line-up with a great pre-season batting display.

Also expected to report to the Tyees momentarily are second baseman Lu Brannan, a hold-over, and outfielder Nap Guly, a 333 hitter at Visalia last season. Manager Cec Garriott is expecting big things of Guly and predicts he will hit 30 home runs in this league.

Tyees used three rookies in the line-up against Seattle Saturday, with Ron Odekirk at shortstop, Dick Cannuli at second base and Bill Mousseau in left field.

The rest of the line-up had Sam Brusa behind the plate, hold-over Chuck Abernathy, and Don Pries at first and third, respectively. Gail Taylor and Walt Tyler completing the outfield.

Bill Wisneski and Bill Prior shared the pitching. Wisneski starting and Prior taking over in the sixth inning.

Wisneski gave up six runs, four of them earned, on five hits, five walks and a hit batter in his five innings.

PRIOR TAGGED

Prior, who had just returned from Portland, was given a rough welcome as Seattle tagged him for nine hits. He walked seven, hit two batters and made one wild pitch, all good for 10 runs.

Former Vancouver Capilano star, Vern Kindsfater, pitched the first seven innings for Seattle.

Gymnastic Display At Glenlyon School

Glenlyon school boys held their annual gymnastic and boxing display at St. Mary's Hall in Oak Bay recently. Murray Peglar won the Dalton Trophy for the best junior boxer under 12 and John Reid captured the senior division and Jones Cup.

Bill Shannon, Vancouver, topped the C group by beating Mel Paget, RCN, Victoria, 15-8, 17-15, 15-13.

Winner of the veterans' group was Don Hall of Seattle, who downed Ed Kemble, Vancouver, 15-11, 15-11, 15-18, 15-11.

Winners and runners-up were presented with trophies and the tournament was stated by many as being a huge success.

Major upset of the tourney came when Ed Gudewill defeated Gregory Stuart, one-time California State champion and former Pacific Coast champ, in B group semi-finals.

It has been more than 40 years since Thorpe gained his first game at Carlisle Indian School. Playing with this little school, usually outmanned and outweighted in games against big eastern colleges, he scored 25 touchdowns and racked up a 198-point total in 1912.

The Olympics that year, with almost no specialized training, he set point totals in the decathlon and pentathlon which stood for 20 years.

King Gustav V of Sweden told him: "Sir, you are the greatest athlete in the world."

Man, It's Great To Be Back

Beaming with approval at the service rendered him, Archie Browning, left, tells Red McMillan that Victoria is still the best place in the world in which to play lacrosse. Considered one of the best players in lacrosse, Browning returned from the east Saturday morning with Shamrock coach Red McMillan and accepted with pleasure a brisk cup of tea served by his coach.

Merchants Hope to Add Coast Crown to Record

Victoria Merchants, Commercial Hockey League champions, will make their bid for the coast championship when they meet Kerrisdale Wheelers at Memorial Arena tonight at 8:30 in the first game of a best-of-seven series.

Merchants will be host team for the complete series with further games being played Wednesday and Friday. Following contests will be played, if necessary, on Saturday and April 6.

WHEELERS STRONG

Wheeler manager Sid Thompson will bring a strong contending club to the island, coached by either Hermie Gruhn, known locally for his short stay with Cougars in the 1951-52 season, or Babe Pratt, one of the most colorful competitors to ever lace on a skate.

Dependable Danny McManus will guard the goal for Kerrisdale with Johnny Snesar available for relief duty.

Al Rittinger, Doug Baker, Wally Thompson and Corky Candee will form the defense corps, with Earl Peterson listed as a possible fill in. Bud Dumont, Roddy McLeod, Ernie Dougherty, Dean McInnes, Bobby Payer, Mickey Lynch and Bruce Furlan will be on the front line with Fergie Ferguson, former Nanaimo Clipper, listed as utility.

BIG THREE

Merchants will rely mainly on their top line of Norm LaCree, Toby Brown and Ron Bremner and strong protection between the pipes by Ab Ellis and George Hall.

Fleming Wins Second Half

Bob Fleming won the second half of a monthly medal competition at Victoria Golf Club Sunday when he toured the course with low gross in par 69.

Hugh Morrison was second with 70. Jimmy Robertson had taken the first half earlier in the month.

Dr. Bigelow turned in high net of 67 and Walter Newcombe was runner up with 68.

But later his medals and trophies of the games were taken from him because it was discovered that he had violated the strict Olympic amateur code by playing professional baseball for $60 a month. Years later a congressional sub-committee decided to see what could be done to have the trophies returned but nothing came of it.

Nobody knows how many sports Jim could have excelled in. He wasn't too strong on training and relied on his great natural co-ordination and speed to attain athletic greatness.

Modern sports experts have picked him as the football player of the century, ranking him ahead of Red Grange. He made Walter Camp's all-American football team in 1911 and 1912. Then he played pro

COLWOOD HOST COURSE FOR '54 PGA TOURNEY

SEATTLE (AP)—The Royal Colwood Club of Victoria will be host to the 1954 Pacific Northwest Golf Association tournament.

Selection of the site was announced Saturday by PNGA directors at their annual spring meeting here. The Uplands Golf Club at Victoria was selected as starting site for the women's championship.

The 1953 tournament previously was awarded to Portland's Columbia-Edgewater Club.

Anticipating an unusually large entry list for the July 20-25 meet, directors voted to cut the qualifying rounds from 36 to 18 holes. The 32 who qualify will play two 18-hole rounds July 22 and survivors will play 36-hole matches on following days.

Four Tie for Top in Greensboro Tourney

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP).—The $10,000 Greensboro Open golf tournament ended in a four-way tie for top money of $2,000 Sunday with Sam Snead, Doug Ford, Art Wall and Earl Stewart, Jr., tied at 275, five under par. They will meet today in an 18-hole playoff for the top four money awards.

In one of the most dramatic finishes of the winter tour, Stewart, who finished two three-strokes ahead of the others, watched them come to the final hole, each needing only a par five on the 495-yard 18th hole to tie him.

Snead, the leader through the first two rounds, was 25 feet past the pin with his third shot. He just missed his long putt and settled for his five.

During his baseball career, Thorpe played for New York Giants and Boston, where he batted .327 in 60 games. He played for Cincinnati for six years and later wound up his career in the minors at the age of 40. Between baseball seasons he played pro football.

In 1951 it was disclosed that Thorpe, sick and broke, was a charity case in a Philadelphia hospital. He underwent surgery for removal of a lip cancer.

After that various movements were started to aid him. Baseball raised a fund for him. And he got some compensation when a biographical movie, "Jim Thorpe, All-American," was produced.

Hawks, Bruins Win Overtime Battles

Dewsbury, McIntyre Twin Heroes

Chicago 2, Montreal 1
Boston 2, Detroit 1

Maybe you can wager on hockey games during the regular season and increase your poke, but when it comes Stanley Cup time in the National Hockey League the wise boys keep their wallets buttoned.

And proof of their astuteness was given in large amounts Sunday night as Chicago Black Hawks and Boston Bruins upset the dope sheets as they scored identical 2-1 overtime victories over the Montreal Canadiens and Detroit Red Wings respectively.

DEWSBURY HERO

Al Dewsbury's brilliant goal in a sudden-death overtime period gave Chicago their 21st victory Sunday night over Montreal, their first win in the National Hockey League semifinals. The Canadiens lead the Stanley Cup playoff series 2-1.

Dewsbury broke up the game at 5:18 of the overtime. He took George Gee's pass-out from the back boards and slammed it in from 30 feet out.

In 10 previous playoff games with the Canadiens—covering 1944 and 1946 appearances as well as the current series—the Hawks had not registered a single win.

Hawks' veteran Bill Mosienko had sent the game into overtime just a minute and 57 seconds before the end of the final period.

The game's only previous score was Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion's third goal of the series, another close-in shot scored against Al Rollins at 14:53 of the second period. Geoffrion had burst through the Hawks' defence twice before he finally hit.

The fourth game of the series will be played here Tuesday. Winger Jack McIntyre's goal at 12:29 of the first overtime period gave Boston a 2-1 victory over the defending champion Red Wings as Boston took a 2-1 lead in their best-of-seven semifinal series.

BREAKS FAMINE

It was the first goal in 20 games for McIntyre. He took a pass from linemate Dave Creighton at centre and broke in with only defenseman Bob Goldham between him and goalie Terry Sawchuk.

McIntyre raced in and, with Goldham forcing him, to boards, fired a 29-foot backhand that sailed past Sawchuk as the throng of 13,909 went wild.

The hustling Bruins—who managed to whip Detroit's powerful club only twice in 14 regular season attempts—now have achieved one of Stanley Cup play's great comebacks. They have beaten the Wings twice in a row after suffering a humiliating 7-0 loss in Detroit.

Boston coach Lynn Patrick's strategy of having veterans Milt Schmidt, Porky Dumart and Joe Klukay face the high-scoring line of Ted Lindsay, Marty Pavelich and Gordie Howe paid off.

They held those Wing stars in check all night while goalie Sugar Jim Henry gave a brilliant performance in the nets and the Bruin defense was excellent.

Ed Sanford sent Boston into a 1-0 edge at 11:27 of the opening period on a beautiful play with defenseman Bill Quackenbush, who carried the puck from the Boston end and laid a perfect scoring pass on Sanford's stick at the Detroit blue-line.

Tony Leswick tied it up at 10:54 of the second period. Marcel Bonin sped in and got it in the corner, feeding back to Kelly. The big defenseman then set up Leswick right in front of Henry and he whipped an eight-foot backhand into the cage.

Bombers Make Dotten Smile

By BILL WALKER, Times Sports Editor

SEATTLE — Usually grim-faced Frank Dotten, owner of the Seattle Bombers, was all smiles Sunday night.

Not only did his hustling Bombers throw a severe crimp into the post-season playoff aspirations of Vancouver Canucks with a sparkling 3-2 victory, but for one of the rare occasions this season, Dotten had the pleasure of witnessing more than the usual complement of players' wives and friends watching the victory.

One of the best Seattle crowds, and there were still several empty seats, saw the Bombers outthrust the Canucks in taking a 2-1 series lead in their best-of-five Western Hockey League quarter final playoff.

Taking advantage of every break that came their way and making their own scoring chances by alert and often furious forechecking, the Bombers were more valuable for their victory than the score would indicate.

And with the fourth game of the series-scheduled here Tuesday night, the Canucks must rid themselves of the potency of the Seattle spirit if they are to survive.

Playing with tremendous confidence, probably inspired by the return to action of their injured goalkeeper Bill Brennan, the Bombers struck for all their goals in the second period, and then defied the Canucks to erase the 3-0 lead.

Lorne Nadeau picked the corner on Emile Francis on a break from the blue-line while being held by Jack Landeau at 5:50 to break the scoreless draw.

CANUCKS ON SPOT

However, Eddie Kobussen's goal at 15:29 probably typified the Seattle play best of all. Kobussen stole the puck from Vancouver's Carl Kaiser near the centre line and outskated two defenders to slide the rubber under Francis.

Twenty-three seconds later, the Canucks again got caught.

GLORIOUS ATHLETIC CAREER ENDS

Incomparable Jim Thorpe Dies

Jim Thorpe, 64, the Oklahoma Indian who became a veritable colossus in the world of athletics, died Saturday.

He suffered a heart attack in his modest trailer in suburban Lomita where he lived with his wife, Patricia.

The news of his death brought words of tribute from men who played with him and writers who described him as "incomparable" and "the greatest athlete of all time."

The most-talked-about sports figure of his day in football, track and field and later in big league baseball, Thorpe had suffered two previous heart attacks, one in 1943 and another last year.

After the glory years at the early part of the century, there were some hard times. Several years ago he was discovered digging ditches. But some of the glory returned three years ago when sports writers and broadcasters of the United States, in an Associated Press poll, voted him the outstanding male athlete of the first half of the 20th century.

It has been more than 40 years since Thorpe gained his first game at Carlisle Indian School. Playing with this little school, usually outmanned and outweighted in games against big eastern colleges, he scored 25 touchdowns and racked up a 198-point total in 1912.

Potent Oarsmen Thump Bays in Cup Semifinal

By GEOFF CONWAY
Ho hum! They've done it again.

Such was the feeling of the few enthusiastic rugby fans who turned out Saturday to watch the semi-final match of the Cowichan Cup playoffs for the Island championship at Macdonald Park.

For JBAA continued their winning ways with a 29-0 slaughter of the short-handed Wanderers and thus virtually won the coveted trophy as their next opponents, Crusaders, are having trouble fielding a team.

The oarsmen's heavy scrum, which has dominated the league throughout the season, experienced little opposition from the hapless Oak Bay squad, which was forced to play much of the contest two forwards short as only 13 players stripped for the game.

Reliable Jim Mill was in Vancouver representing B.C. in the Queen's game and teammates Paul Beck, Lorne Macdonald and Leo Lund also missed the match.

NEW PLAYERS

Speedy Bob Hutchison and John Olson of the University of Washington were in strip for Oak Bay in an effort to fill the breach, but a badly outweighted and outnumbered scrum couldn't get the ball out to this potent three-line.

Ed Bourke snared the game's first points at the 10-minute mark after a forward movement, and Harry Turner and Pete Fowles followed suit shortly after. Fowles crossed the line twice more in the opening half but both times play was called back for an offside.

Bays continued to control play and Bob McKee completed their first successful backfield run when he crossed into paydirt from his wing position.

The usually reliable Gary Pynn missed all four convert attempts and also three penalties to leave the half-time count at 12-0.

Shortly after the intermission J.B.A.A.'s backfield really began to click as the whole squad put on a perfect exhibition of rugby.

Pynn ran the score to 17-0 when he converted his own try and Laurie Smith took advantage of an Oak Bay defensive lapse to dribble and run the ball 20 yards down the sideline into the end zone.

SPECTACULAR PLAY
Pynn then parted the posts with a fairly easy penalty boot to set the stage for the game's best play. The Bay forwards gathered in the Wanderer kick after the score and smartly relayed it out to the three who ran and passed till wing Pynn was in possession of the ball on the 25-yard line. He then executed a perfect cross-kick and only the fullback had to be passed by the charging Bay forwards. Fowles was the final pass recipient as six Bays poured over the line.

The next Wanderer kickback also resulted in three points as the Oarsmen were awarded a penalty on the 52-yard line. Pynn made up for his early misses by lining a 65-yard kick between the uprights to close out the scoring.

IRISH RUGGERS DOWN B.C. REPS

VANCOUVER (CP)—The touring Queens University rugby team of Belfast Saturday defeated British Columbia reps 20-6 in a test match at Brockton Oval here before a crowd of 7,000.

Queens scored four tries and converted them all against two unconverted tries for the losing side.

REGISTRATION ZOOMS IN MINOR BASEBALL LOOPS

The Victoria Minor Baseball Association is well on its way to what it hopes will be its biggest season in years.

Sunday afternoon, officials were swamped when 125 players between the ages of eight and 20 turned out to register with the league for the coming season.

Registration for all leagues will continue Tuesday night between 6:30 and 8:30, at Harris Cycles, 736 Fort Street. Players are reminded that proof of age must be produced before registration can be completed.

Grid Chiefs Approve Several Rule Changes

EDMONTON, Alta. (BUP)—The Canadian Rugby Union today inked several important changes in the Canadian football rule book after east and west settled peacefully all but a few of their differences at the annual convention.

Norman Perry of Sarnia, Ont., new president of the CRU, said the meeting ended "in perfect harmony and agreement," although requests for 11-man teams and six-point touchdowns were rejected even after the Big Four and western conference leagues gained control of union voting power.

An all inclusive forward pass rule was one of the major new regulations which was approved at the two-day convention. It means that when a screen or shovel pass is thrown and becomes incomplete it will be treated as an incomplete forward pass, or dead ball.

The screen pass, highly favored in the west, is one made from a point behind the line of scrimmage to another point behind the same line.

Under the new order, a forward pass is any throw in a forward direction. A lateral pass still is a free ball when completed or dropped.

Another major rule change allows unlimited downfield blocking on kickoffs, but the receiving team must have at least six players within 10 yards of the line of kickoff when the ball is booted.

The CRU approved the use of tees on kickoffs, providing they don't raise the ball more than one inch off the ground, and use of unlimited play substitution to establish "sleeper" teams will be penalized 15 yards.

The grid chiefs also decided to ban hitting the passer at the moment he passes the ball, although he can be hit before or after.

Mic Macs, Eagles Win Lower Island Finals

Two lower Island finals were played in the Lower Island Junior and Juvenile Football Association Saturday.

In a third division encounter, Mic Mac's edged Eagles, 1-0, in overtime, for the right to meet Nanaimo in the Island final at Sidney on Sunday.

Bob Jay potted the winner with less than five minutes to go in the second 10-minute overtime session and the team held on until the whistle for the winning margin.

Following the game, George Barnes, juvenile commissioner, presented the winners with the E. H. Carey Cup.

Eagles trounced Shepherd's Dairy, 5-1, in the fifth division final. Eagles now tangle with Nanaimo in a sudden death contest for the Island championship at Royal Athletic Park on Juvenile Day as a preliminary to the Victoria United-Victoria West exhibition contest.

FARMER FOLLOWS DAWES ON OLYMPIC HOT-SEAT

TORONTO (BUP)—Ken Farmer, a member of Canada's 1936 Olympic hockey team, was elected president of the Canadian Olympic Association Saturday, succeeding A. Sidney Dawes of Montreal, who said he was getting "too old" for the job.

Farmer, 40, also of Montreal, formerly was honorary secretary of the association. His election was predicted several weeks ago when Dawes said he didn't intend standing for re-election.

"I'm too old for this job," Dawes told the association's annual convention. "It's the kind of position that should be passed along to younger men who will do a lot of good for sport. Ken is a great fellow for the job."

Gay and sad by-turn, the story of a dour Scottish sergeant who learned the value of friendship, will unfold when the York Theatre Co. opens in "The Hasty Heart" tonight at 8.

It is a repeat performance by popular request of one of the York's most successful offerings to date.

Michael Rothery will again appear in the lead role of the sergeant who had lived without friends for fear of the trouble a "hasty heart" might cause.

Mr. Rothery gave his finest performance since joining the York company with his portrayal of the sergeant who slowly realized in a military hospital ward in the Far East what his philosophy of life has cost.

There will be minor changes in cast from the earlier presentation. Dewey Harless will play Kiwi, formerly played by John Maunsell, and Allan Farrell will be "Blossom," which was portrayed by Gordon Matthews at the original performance.

Arthur Coe-Gray, newcomer, will play the colonel. Also in the cast are Elizabeth Knight, Robert Tabor, Alexander Gray and Maurice Corbett. Ian Thorne will direct.

Hydraulic gold mining near Fairbanks, Alaska, frequently uncovers frozen prehistoric animals, says the National Geographic Society. On one occasion, the head, trunk and foreleg of a mammoth at least 15,000 years old were flown to the American Museum of Natural History in New York and put on display in a home freezer.

Burma Claims Dead Guerrillas Are Americans

Believed Instructing Nationalist Forces

RANGOON (CP)—Three white men found among the dead after a battle between Burmese troops and Chinese Nationalist guerrillas are believed to be Americans, it was disclosed today.

Photographs of the three identified only as Heine, Spellmeier, Sayer and Lothar, were flown Sunday night to the war office here from East Burma.

The war office said the photographs "prove conclusively that the men are non-Asian white and they are probably American."

Some 12,000 Chinese Nationalists have been foraging in Burma since Chiang Kai-shek's forces were overthrown by the Communists. Burma last week protested in the United Nations against the presence of the Chinese on Burmese soil.

REFUSE U.S. AID

During the week-end Burma notified the U.S. that from June 30 it will not accept any more American aid.

A government source said this action was taken to release Burma from any moral obligations in pressing its charges in the U.N. The source said Burmese ministers believe the U.S. is interested in the activities of the Nationalists in Burma. "But Washington has denied all responsibility for the situation."

The war office said today the photographs indicate that the three men were instructors with the Chinese guerrilla forces.

RCAF Flies to Rescue Marooned Missionary

CHURCHILL, Man (BUP)—An RCAF Norseman flew north today to a spot 60 miles below the Arctic Circle where a missionary, his wife and an adopted Eskimo son awaited rescue beside a downed plane.

A Dakota spotted the Rev. Gleason Ledyard and his ski-equipped Stinson aircraft late Sunday. Its crew said the missionary, his wife, Katherine, 35, and six-year-old Kalugjak waved to the search plane as it circled them.

Ledyard, 35, had been unreported since Wednesday when he flew out of his missionary headquarters at Eskimo Point, 150 miles north of here, to take the gospel to Eskimos at Wager Bay, 250 miles farther north.

The Dakota search plane, which returned here after locating the missionary, said it appeared his plane had run out of gas. It had not crashed and Ledyard and his family appeared uninjured.

Air force authorities said the missionary knew how to survive in the Arctic tundra. His plane carried a five-month supply of food and plenty of clothing. The temperature was 10 degrees above zero, about 20 degrees milder than normal for this time of year.

Ledyard, from Ashland, Ohio, first came to the northland five years ago.

Red China Warned Not to Extend War

Use of Truce Talks to Widen Aggression Would Have 'Most Serious Consequences'

WASHINGTON (AP)—France and the United States have warned there would be "the most serious consequences" if the Chinese Communists used a truce in Korea to wage aggressive war anywhere else in the Far East.

The warning was given added point by the announced acceptance by the Chinese Communists Saturday of the United Nations proposal for exchanging wounded Korean war prisoners and also their suggestion for renewed truce talks.

The joint statement, issued after three days of talks between President Eisenhower, French Premier Rene Mayer and their top aides, said:

BOTH GOVERNMENTS
"It was the view of both governments... that should the Chinese Communist regime take advantage of such an armistice to pursue aggressive war elsewhere in the Far East, such action would have the most serious consequences for the efforts to bring about peace in the world and world con-

SLEEP-WALKER WHO KILLED HUSBAND GETS EIGHT YEARS

PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Mrs. Leslie Weddington, who in the opinion of a psychiatrist killed her husband in a sleep-walking trance, has been convicted of voluntary manslaughter.

The all-male jury reached its verdict after deliberating about two hours and fixed her punishment at eight years in prison.

Mrs. Weddington, 36, on trial for murder, was accused of shooting her husband, Richard, 42, in the back with a shotgun as he slept last Nov. 1. The couple had been married 18 years.

Dr. W. E. Rich testified that Mrs. Weddington carried out while in a sleep-walking trance a subconscious wish to kill her husband. He said he did not think she was conscious of the shooting until after it was committed.

Creston Players Produce Self-Satire

Two Victoria College graduates, Tom Matheson and Norton Welch, have collaborated on a sprightly musical comedy, "Whistle Stop," which opens at Creston, B.C., Thursday.

"Whistle Stop" is a gentle satire on the lives of the people of Creston, a bustling little town in the East Kootenays. The Kiwanis Club is sponsor.

It was composed, written and produced by Creston people, Mr. Matheson wrote the script and lyrics and Mr. Welch composed 15 catchy tunes. Both received their Bachelor of Arts degrees at UBC.

Mr. Matheson attended Victoria College from '45 to '47. Mr. Welch was at the college for two years also, from '47 to '49.

Popular Vote To Be Supreme In Italian House

51% of Ballots Assures Power

ROME (AP)—The Senate broke a record Communist filibuster, gave Premier Alcide de Gasperi a vote of confidence, and passed his election bill Sunday amid the wildest scenes of fist-swinging and desk-smashing in Italian parliamentary history.

The election measure is expected to help de Gasperi keep his government in office in the June general election.

HOUSE RIOTS

The voting took place amid a virtual riot of shouting, shouting and clubbing. There were 174 votes for the government and three abstentions. The remainder of the 330 senators, including 88 Communists and 41 pro-Communist Socialists, did not quit their slugging to vote.

Promptly after their defeat the Communists, who claim 2,000,000 members in Italy, announced retaliatory steps. These included an appeal to President Luigi Einaudi against the legality of the proceedings, and a call for protest strikes and demonstrations throughout the country.

STALLED 78 HOURS
Premier de Gasperi had staked the life of his government—on passage of the election bill which had been stalled for a record 78 hours by a Communist filibuster.

The bill gives any party or bloc of parties polling more than 50 per cent of the popular vote a "bonus" so that it receives 65 per cent of the parliamentary seats. De Gasperi's dominant Christian Democrat Party and allied pro-Western parties said their goal was to assure a workable parliamentary majority and stable government. Communists and left-wing Socialists and some neo-Fascists on the right bitterly charged that the government was stacking the cards.

'I SHOT THE BOY,' SAYS ANGUISHED FATHER Little Cripple Cradled in Arms, Dazed Veteran Awaits Discovery

CLIFTON, N.J. (UP)—An anguished father, fearing his own death was near, killed his crippled five-year-old son in what he told police was "an act of mercy."

Albert Sell, 44, a restaurant owner, faced arraignment today on a murder charge in the death of his son, Albert, Jr., a cerebral palsy victim.

Sell, a Second World War veteran who underwent a major operation last January, said he shot and killed his son to keep him from "growing up helpless." He told police that he also feared he himself might die soon and he did not want the boy to become a burden on his ill wife.

Sell and his dead son, Albert, Jr., were found in Sell's automobile yesterday parked on a wooded private road some two miles from the restaurant Sell operates.

The father and son had been sought since midnight Saturday when they failed to return from a visit to a friend.

Two special policemen, Fred Von Hassel and Frank Stagnitto, found the automobile. Sell was sitting behind the wheel, Stagnitto said. He was in a dazed condition.

"I shot the boy," Sell told them. "He's on the back seat." Sell told police that after visiting a friend Saturday he drove his son to the private road and parked. He said he got out and let the boy sit behind the wheel pretending to drive. Then he aimed a .30-calibre rifle at the back of the boy's head.

The boy apparently died instantly. Sell got back in the car and for awhile cradled the dead body of the curly-haired boy in his arms. Finally, he said, he put the body on the back seat and sat waiting for someone to come and find them.

Victoria Beauty Features

LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID—patented beauty aid—is the sworn enemy of premature wrinkles, crow's-feet.

VOL. 1, NO. 1

VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, MARCH 30, 1953

VOL. 1, NO. 1

Lanolin Plus Does Wonders for Skin

Wrinkles Worrying You?

Don't let them! You can actually help remove, or greatly reduce premature wrinkles in a very simple manner. First, what causes this kind of wrinkles? Nothing more than hard dry skin. To prove it, crush a piece of silk. . . then shake it out. It has no wrinkles. Now, crush a piece of note paper. It's permanently wrinkled. . . because it's hard and dry.

Ordinary cleansing creams probably are the cause of dry skin. Although they cleanse, they remove the skin's surface lubricants—esters and cholesterol—and leave the pores clogged with mineral oils and waxes. These are closely related to gasoline, and not only fail to lubricate, but actually may further dry out the skin. All you have to do is soften the skin and premature wrinkles begin to give way. All you have to use is LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID. Use it as a cleanser then tissue it off. Rub in a little more, especially on the premature wrinkle lines, and leave it on overnight. In the daytime, use it sparingly as a powder base. After the first night, your skin will be no longer dry. Use regularly and your wrinkles should be greatly reduced or no longer visible. Impossible? Not at all! LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID, patented by the U.S. government, contains a fabulous amount of lanolin and esters and cholesterol, the closest duplication of nature's own skin lubricants. These elements actually penetrate, replacing those removed by the cleansing process. You'll say it's "liquid magic," and it really is! Want to be wrinkle-free? Use LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID every day. It is available at all cosmetic counters, and the price, $1.50, is as astonishing as the almost magic results it gives.

Dramatize and Highlight The Unsuspected Beauty of Your Hair

To give yourself the correct shampoo, make certain that the hair is gently massaged with the fingertips throughout the shampooing process. It's not only pleasant and relaxing, but it stimulates the sebaceous glands of the scalp and makes them more active. Rinsing must be done with great care, slowly and effectively. Most emphatically, thoroughly! The desirable method is the use of a professional spray.

Now! What kind of shampoo lotion? It mustn't contain hard ingredients that tend to dry out the hair. It mustn't leave the hair with a sticky, dull film! It must leave it soft, shiny, manageable!

New Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream Endows Dry Skin With Vital Oils

Ever hear this comment: "I can't use soap and water on my complexion because it's so dry?"

What milady often fails to realize is that the cream she is using for cleansing may actually be drying out her skin. Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream for dry skin offers in cream form a cleansing agent delightful in texture due to its quick melting and deep penetrating.

Why does Lanolin benefit your skin? Because Lanolin, a substitute for nature's own oils to help nourish and lubricate the skin and scalp. The best shampoo to choose is one that contains a generous supply of rich lanolized suds. Such a product is LANOLIN PLUS HARD WATER SHAMPOO. Here is a shampoo that lathers in the hardest water. It's gentle on the hair, and its rich, lanolized suds whisk away completely all dirt and grime so that the hair is left soft and silken, with beautiful glistening highlights. Just as the shampoo cleanses, its oil pampers the hair.

It's economical too, because it's fast-acting, with just one or two applications needed per washing. Only $1.50 at all cosmetic counters.

product obtained from the wool of lambs, is most similar to the natural oils of human skin. As we grow older the normal lubrication and elimination of the skin tends to diminish. Due to the lack of natural moisture and lubrication the skin becomes dry, coarse, dull and old. For dry skin Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream for dry skin gives you the needed supplementary oils to combat these conditions in your skin. LANOLIN PLUS CLEANSING CREAM FOR DRY SKIN. $2.00 at all cosmetic counters.

Lanolin Plus Liquid replenishes natural skin oils with softening, lubricating substances. It works effectively as a cleansing cream or make-up base. Try it today; treat your face to a facial pick-up!

Is Your Hair in Perfect Condition?

You may spend hours in a beauty salon or at home concerning yourself with styling, rinses, bleaches and "touch-ups." Oh, your hair may look pretty after all this care, but what's it really like deep-down at the scalp? What is the condition of its health? Have harsh chemicals, sunlight and hair dryers sapped its inner strength and beauty? These things can happen, you know. And they happen at a great cost of time and money to you.

External hair care is important and wise for the final appearance of the well-groomed woman. There's no question about it. Yet, in accomplishing this external beauty is the same amount of time and care given to its internal condition. You can tell this way: Look for split ends, hair strands that have a dull, dry look, a coiffure that remains unmanageable. If these things are apparent in your situation, your hair lacks the proper lubricants. Nature's own oil, esters and cholesterol, are in need of a helpmeet. Lanolin, so closely duplicating these natural oils, provides the solution. The newest hair conditioner available today, Lanolin Plus for the Hair, just as its name implies, is steeped with this rich supplement.

It can be used in several ways. It should be rubbed gently into the scalp and massaged into hair strands the night before a shampoo. In this way, it is an excellent aid for reviving dull, damaged hair. If dryness is not severe, brush a few drops through the hair after each shampoo, working a small amount into the ends of the hair. In making the hair soft and flexible once more, it helps prevent split, broken ends and brings back a healthy, lustrous sheen. It helps keep unruly locks attractively in place. A few drops brushed on daily keeps shimmering highlights in the hair always.

You'll find, too, that the men at your house will like this new, lanolin-rich lotion for the hair. It doesn't leave smudge on hats, hands, pillows or upholstery, but imparts a smooth, well-cared-for look.

You can purchase Lanolin Plus for the Hair for only $1.50 at any cosmetic counter. It's the sure way to keep your hair in perfect condition!

Works Quickly, Effectively, Inexpensively to Restore That Youthful Look!

Chemists discovered that the supply of body substances which give softness and pliability to the skin diminishes with age. Therefore, they based the formula for Lanolin Plus on these important facts, combining highly refined Lanolin PLUS other beauty-benefitting ingredients.

The highly concentrated liquid in Lanolin Plus supplies your skin with the extra lubrication it needs. Lanolin Plus Liquid does the work of three products. Use it effectively as a cleansing cream, night cream or make-up base, because it gets down deep to the source of your skin oils with softening lubricating substances. Try it for a facial treatment, a perfect pick-up for dry, tired, weather-worn skin! Here's a quick, simple way to deep-cleanse your face, make it glow with new vitality and beauty. You'll be overjoyed with the noteworthy results, the clean, fresh look and feel!

1. Hold a hot washcloth to your face and neck for about a minute to open pores and allow tired muscles to relax.

2. Briskly massage warmed Lanolin Plus (warm bottle under hot water tap) into face and neck until skin begins to tingle.

3. After a few minutes, wipe away impurities brought to pore openings by soothing Lanolin Plus Liquid.

Lanolin Plus Liquid is simple as ABC to use! Gently massage a few drops into your skin before retiring. It works while you sleep, leaves no greasy film on your pillow! It's perfect as a powder base and your skin is in contact with beneficial ingredients all day long. Just apply a few drops and tissue away the excess, your make-up goes on smoothly, really lasts. For a cleansing, apply no more than what is necessary to dissolve your make-up. Since this lanolin-rich liquid lubricates and softens the skin, it has other beneficial uses: If the heels, or insteps or toes are callused or rough, a relaxing foot bath, followed by a Lanolin Plus Liquid massage does wonders for softening and soothing the dried-out areas. It's excellent also for suntanning and after swimming, during out-of-season sunny climate vacations.

How long has it been since you've analyzed objectively what your complexion is really like? It's up to you whether your skin becomes prematurely wrinkled, or is soft and supple, with a glowing, youthful radiance.

There is no season of the year, when it isn't necessary to conduct your own personal "complexion campaign." Climatic conditions—harsh, wintry winds or hot, penetrating sun-rays—do rob the skin of its natural oils, leaving it hard and dry. Ordinary facial cleansers rob the skin of its natural oils. You must compensate for lost natural lubricants if your skin is to become softened and smooth in appearance; if you are to avoid dry skin and age-ing wrinkle lines.

Only Lanolin Plus Liquid replenishes these natural skin oils so vitally needed to nourish and protect and lubricate the skin. Remember . . . it's up to you! How you care for your skin today means the difference between a beautiful, youthful complexion, or a hard, dry, unattractive one tomorrow!

You can purchase this splendid product at all leading drug and department store cosmetic counters. Its nominal cost is only $1.50 for LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID!

Free Dispenser with Hand Lotion

A few drops of Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion applied several times during the day will do much to keep your hands lovely to watch—lovely to touch.

Taxi Trade's 'Biggest Man' Dies

Self-styled "biggest man in the taxi and sightseeing business," Angus Chilton, "Winnipeg," as he was known to thousands, died Sunday night, aged 62.

The man who 40 years ago drove a horse-drawn taxi in Victoria and eventually owned and operated his own taxi fleet, was a jovial, generous and courageous man and an outstanding raconteur.

He weighed 362 pounds and boasted, at one time, he was the biggest taximan on the continent. It was a claim that was never challenged.

Later he was only 240 pounds; "not the man I used to be," he'd say.

Winnipeg's foghorn voice was familiar, especially to the night workers who used to sup at or after midnight in a popular downtown restaurant. He boasted he ate 12 times a day, and no one ever doubted it. His tales would keep an audience rapt. And he would laugh and say: "Don't let the chowder go cold, son."

Twice wounded in the First World War, "Peg" started a taxi business after demobilization. It was the Veterans' Sightseeing and Transportation Company. He sold out to Cy Sangster eventually, who built the Blue Line.

In 1942 "Peg" retired... but only for the winter months. He was still active during the tourist season, managing the Blue Line's office at Belleville and Government, where the taxi-hos load.

Born in Ontario, Mr. Chilton came to Victoria with an ambition to own a restaurant. With his prodigious appetite, it was an objective. Indeed, for a time he did operate the Venice Cafe, on View Street.

"But how could I make a profit?" he would laugh in retrospective mood.

He was a prominent Eagle; and the fraternal order is making arrangements for the funeral, to be announced later.

VICTORIA, B.C., MONDAY, MARCH 30, 1953

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

An anonymous non-admirer takes Between Times to task for printing the plural of MLA as MLAs.

He asks sneeringly "what have they got—or did they have it?"

Technically, of course, the critic is quite correct. MLA's is the possessive, MLAs the plural.

But, to carry the technicality through to its logical and completely accurate conclusion, from now on I shall print the plural of MLA as MSLA.

Frank Mitchell, the young CCF stalwart from the place of the shoaling waters, is rapidly becoming one of my favorites among the MSLA.

He combines a youthful optimism with hard-headed realism in a way which bodes well for his political future.

The ink was hardly dry on the bill dissolving the legislature when Frank secured the CCF nomination and began to clear decks for action.

"After a week off to plant my garden, I'm going to concentrate all my attention on Esquimalt and the coming election," he announced, confidently.

This faith in nature is indeed touching. One week to plant the garden; six weeks to nurture the less predictable, more fragile growth of the voters; this is a realistic approach to the problems of the politician.

However, what some of the MSLA may find out in June is, they planted their political garden during the last session, and no amount of pre-election cultivation will alter the crop.

I wish someone would invent a better word than "dissolve" to describe what happened to the legislature last week.

When I hear about "the house being dissolved," I cannot avoid a picture of a group of snowmen, melting in the sun, and disintegrating sadly, being swept with the stream out to sea, never to appear again.

Man I know has figured out a way to take care of the neighbor who will soon be borrowing his lawn mower.

He is going to best him to the punch, by taking the mower over now—before he has it sharpened.

Recommended reading: the election ads of June, 1952.

And with the election coming up, most of the voters will exercise the freedom which is the parallel of freedom of speech—the freedom not to listen.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

David Evans was elected president of the Victoria Welsh Society at a recent annual meeting. He succeeds A. I. Thomas.

Others elected to office were Ellis James, first vice-president, and K. Howell, secretary-treasurer.

Archibald A. Thomson, 18, of 1205 Esquimalt Road, pleaded guilty in city police court today to unlawfully attempting to cash worthless cheques for $9 and $8 at local department stores. He was remanded to April 2 for sentence.

City police Sunday picked up a 15-year-old boy who had run away from his Vancouver home 14 days ago. Vancouver police were contacted to inform parents. City officers put the lad on the midnight boat and he was met by his mother at the Vancouver dock today.

Nothing was taken by thieves who broke into the Rock Bay Lumber Co., 327 Catherine, during the week-end, city police reported. All drawers in the office were ransacked. Entry was gained by removing a window in the east wall.

GUNS TO ROAR LAST SALUTE

A 40-gun salute will be fired simultaneously in Victoria and Vancouver Tuesday at 11 a.m. to mark the funeral of the late Dowager Queen Mary.

Work Point Barracks announced today the 129th AA Battery, RCA, will fire the salute, firing one round every minute for 40 minutes, over Rose Bay, at the foot of Work Point property.

All other army units and services at Work Point will parade, 500 strong to the parade square.

In Vancouver, the 15th Field Regiment will handle the ceremonial in Stanley Park.

Making the "first speech of the election campaign," Thomas Irwin, Speaker of the Legislature, and MLA for Delta, will address a meeting sponsored by Group One, Oak Bay Social Credit Association, in Margaret Jenkins School, Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Victoria Amateur Movie Club will hold its monthly meeting at the National Film Board room, 1217 Wharf Street, Tuesday night at 8.

Three films, made by the Winnipeg Cine Club, will be shown along with films by local members.

Vandals Sunday night removed three red lanterns, tore off planks covering cement and left marks in the cement where work was being done on the curb at Menzies and Michigan, police said.

James Cecil A. Armour, Victoria, was fined $200 in city police court today when he pleaded guilty to driving a car Saturday night while his ability was impaired by alcohol.

Arrest came when Constable Joseph Barlow spoke to Armour after he had nearly collided with another car on Johnson Street.

Word was received here today of the death of Alec McD. Paterson, formerly of Ladner, in Vancouver General Hospital.

The one-time Liberal member for Delta riding in the B.C. legislature, Mr. Paterson in later years had been prominently associated with the Pacific National Exhibition.

Premier Withholds Liquor Act Details

Premier W. A. C. Bennett gave assurance today his government fully intended to bring forward a new liquor act at the session which ended last week.

Although refusing to give details of the proposed act, the premier said it was designed to carry out most of the recommendations of the Stevens Report, which was submitted to the government last December.

WANTS TO REST

Premier to Holiday on Battle Eve

By DAVE STOCK

Premier Bennett intends to take a holiday.

He said today he's going to go away somewhere and relax completely before he begins campaigning for the return of his government in the June election.

The premier intends to conclude work at his office in the Parliament Buildings on Thursday and return to his Okanagan home. On Tuesday, April 7, he will address his constituents in a Kelowna theatre on what he calls "the general political situation" and then will go on a holiday.

"I don't know exactly where I will go or how long I will take," he said, leaning back in his swivel chair and obviously getting great pleasure from the thought of a vacation.

"PRETTY STRENUOUS"

"It's been pretty strenuous," the premier began.

"I was going to say it's been strenuous since August, but it's been strenuous from before that—ever since the campaign in the Esquimalt by-election."

That was in 1951, after he quit Coalition government and walked across the floor to become an independent. At that time he was careful not to reveal his plans for forming a B.C. Social Credit party but tried out some of its general principles by supporting Reeve A. C. Wurtele, who sought the Esquimalt seat as an independent.

Mr. Bennett actually managed the reeve's campaign which ended with Mr. Wurtele running a close second to the successful CCF candidate Frank Mitchell.

Three Sentenced For Stealing

Three mainland men were found guilty of theft in County Court here today and were sentenced to imprisonment.

Judge Joseph B. Clearhugh found William F. Morrison, W. R. Caverly and Albert S. Glover guilty of stealing a bottle of whisky from the home of J. L. Robert, 2631 Queenswood, on Jan. 27.

Morrison and Glover each were sentenced to one year's imprisonment. Caverly was sentenced to six months.

The three men were tried last Thursday before the judge who reserved judgment until today.

L. G. McKenzie, Saanich prosecutor, pointed out that both Morrison and Glover had previous criminal records and had served time in the penitentiary.

"Although this is a simple theft, it suggests house-breaking," said Mr. McKenzie.

Biggest Daff Freight In History Flies East

The biggest daffodil airlift in the history of the Vancouver Island flower industry got under way today.

A big TCA North Star took off this afternoon from Patricia Bay with a cargo of 29,000 daffs for eastern Canada where the golden blooms will be sold for the Easter week-end.

By the end of the week 2,500,000 Saanich grown blooms will have been shipped by air to the prairies, Ontario and Quebec.

Saanich growers chartered three North Stars and one DC3 aircraft to carry their precious freight. The aircraft will shuttle between Patricia Bay and points east until Friday.

POLICE STILL SEEKING CHILD FEARED DROWNED IN COWICHAN

Search for the body of a two-year-old boy, believed drowned in the spring-swollen Cowichan River near Duncan, was continuing by RCMP officers today.

Sergeant T. D. Brunton of the Duncan detachment, told the Times before noon that boats have patrolled the river, to its mouth without finding any trace of Laurie Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Harper, Riverside Court, Duncan.

The toddler has been missing from his home since last Friday.

Sgt. Brunton said officers will continue combing the river area as they become available from other duties.

Four Parties Start June Election Plans

Waldo Skillings Seeking Sacred Vote In City; Other Candidates Selected

The unprecedented political situation of last week and the resulting bewilderment and confusion even of veteran legislators has resolved itself into something all politicians understand—an election.

There is still no official word on when the big day will come, but political groups in every section of the province have been preparing for their campaigns.

Premier W. A. C. Bennett is holding back on his announcement of election day.

Raiders Carry Off $494 Cash in Safe

Gang Times Shell Oil Office Entry Between Police Checks for Security

Inactive for nearly a month, Victoria's safe-stealing raiders struck again over the week-end in a $494 haul.

Cash was in a 300-pound safe taken from the offices of Shell Oil Company of Canada Ltd. on the Industrial Reserve.

It was the fifth safe to be carried away since the bold raiders started operations here on the night of Feb. 9-10. The take to date totals $1,015 in cash and $200 in bearer bonds.

In past efforts the gang abandoned two other safes containing a total of $275 in cash. During the earlier safe-stealing period there was a safe-blowing at Standard Steam Laundry, View Street, which netted the cracksmen $500.

Operations ceased after Norrington's Bakery safe had been "kidnapped," bearing $300, on March 3.

D. N. McMillan, manager of the oil firm, said the safe in this week-end's theft also contained a cheque for $456.70 and some credit slips, which if not recovered would mean an additional loss of $124 to the firm.

He said the company was covered by burglary insurance.

FAST OPERATION

The newest robbery was executed with a speed that indicated the culprits had everything planned to the second.

Chief of Police John Blackstock said that Constable Keith Hollett checked the security of the industrial reserve office at 3 a.m. Sunday morning and found everything secure.

However, when the premises were checked one hour and 35 minutes later an entry had been made and the safe was gone.

Entry was gained by forcing a window catch on the west side of the building.

The heavy safe was wheeled 25 to 30 feet through a rear door and apparently loaded onto a truck.

Immediately on discovering the robbery, city police sent cars to block off the two main

Court Views Exhibits With Uneasy Eye

High Explosives Crown's Evidence

City police court had a potential highly-explosive atmosphere today.

Exhibits of nitro-glycerine, blasting caps and electric fuses were entered in the preliminary hearing of Robert Douglas Morgan, 37, charged with unlawful possession of an explosive weapon.

Morgan was committed for trial in a higher court after the one-hour hearing. His counsel is Joseph McKenna. Prosecutor Alan Bigelow handled the case for the Crown.

Accused of carrying nitro "for no good lawful purpose," Morgan was apprehended at gun-point by Constable Kenneth R. Wainwright on the early evening of March 21 in the 700 block of Cormorant Street.

The officer told the court that at 7:40 p.m. on the night in question he saw two men walking along Cormorant and turn into an alleyway.

REFUSED TO HALT

Witness said he followed and when the two men saw him they took to their heels. The officer said a chase followed through alleys, over fences and rubbish heaps, the pair refusing to halt in spite of his warnings that he would shoot.

"When they got back onto Cormorant again, they separated. One man ran west on that street, and disappeared south on Douglas.

"The other man reached into his jacket, and pulled out a brown-paper parcel, bent down and laid it on the ground and then ran," the officer related.

OPENED FIRE

The constable took after the man, and when he wouldn't stop, started firing his revolver. "I fired three shots into the ground and he still didn't stop, so I fired two more, trying for the lower body."

"I finally caught up to him after the fifth shot at Cormorant and Blanshard and he said: 'Okay, I've had enough.'"

The officer identified Morgan as the man he caught. One of the bullets had grazed Morgan's right wrist.

Const. Wainwright said he took Detectives Alex Briggs and Angus Munro to the scene of the chase afterward and that two parcels were found. One contained nitro and caps, was partially hidden under a board at the rear of a shed. A jemmy bar was found near the Knights of Pythias building.

WHY GROW OLD?

Living Ought To Be Fun!
Why Don't You Make It So?

Physical attractiveness is always an asset. It is the window dressing for more important characteristics. It is the first impact we make on others.

Far be it from me to minimize its importance to a woman. However, it is not the most essential part of magnetism. Personality and charm can make a plain woman look beautiful and lack of them can make a classically beautiful one seem as dull and cold and unattractive as mud.

Of what elusive qualities are personality and charm concocted? Well, if I knew, I would get a load of it myself! However, in trying to analyze women who utterly charm others, it seems to me that there is always a certain vitality which is reflected in interest and enthusiasm and a love of life.

This idea of being vital is much more subtle and far reaching in its effect on one than being able to chin oneself 25 times without stopping. Being vital means being keenly alive, therefore keenly aware, therefore keenly observant.

Therefore thoughtful and understanding and gay.

These charming folks also seem to have the magic quality of not taking experiences or things or people for granted. They are alive to such a degree that to do so would be impossible. In what would be routine duties and mundane daily living to others, they find the reasons for kindness and for feeling adventurous or humorous. They find life fun.

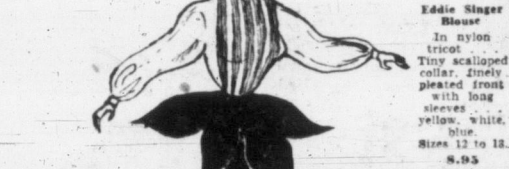

They never take the moon or the sun for granted. They never fail to respond to a frosty, star-studded night. They are as conscious of the beauty as of the pathos about them. They get a huge kick out of an unexpected happiness and bounce back after a blow. They are too busy living to be sensitive. They are rewarding people!

So what? We are running a house, working hard on a career, rearing children, making a man happy, trying to make the budget work out right, but we are also supposed to be living, and life is short. Remember? It ought to be fun!

How Can Hostile Families Of Teenagers Be Merged?

By ELIZABETH B. HURLOCK, PhD

Merging two families into one is a long and difficult task. It takes a lot of courage and faith to tackle such a job, even under the best of circumstances. But when circumstances are unfavorable it is almost doomed to failure from the start. That is why this woman had better watch her step. She writes:

(Q) "I am a widow with three children, ranging in age from seven to 14 years. I have been going with a widower who has two teenage daughters just a trifle older than my oldest child. The children seem to resent each other and I have the feeling that my friend's daughters resent me too. The older girl has been taking charge of the home since the mother's death and I have the feeling that she does not want me or anyone else to intrude. The girls do much as they please about dates, hours of coming home, etc., as their father is a busy man and has not been able to do much for his daughters. He feels that they need a mother and he thinks I am the right one for that job. But if they resent me how can I be a good mother to them?"

(A) The answer is that you cannot be a good mother to them if they refuse to co-operate and play the game with you. You would make the lives of every member of both families wretched if you went ahead with your plan to marry this man so long as his daughters feel as they do about you and your children.

Under the best of circumstances, it is hard to expect two sets of children, brought up with different backgrounds, to be friendly from the start. Your children would certainly object to the girls just as they object to your children. Then you would be likely to side with your children as their father would side with his. Can't you see for yourself that the home would, under such circumstance, be a constant battleground?

Tell him how things stand and why you feel that it would be a great risk to launch an experiment which has so little promise of success. If he really loves you and wants you as his wife, it will be up to him to straighten things out in his own home and sell his daughters on the idea that having a step-mother, stepbrothers and sisters, would add to the pleasures of their lives and would give them what they have lacked since their mother's death. If he cannot convince them of this, you have no other alternative than to fade out of the picture.

If you have a personal problem, write Elizabeth Hurlock in care of this newspaper.

East, West Coast Interest In Double Ring Ceremony

A wedding of east-west interest took place Saturday night in a double-ring ceremony performed by Canon Frederick Pike in St. Luke's Anglican Church. Principals were Betty Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent G. Townsend, Veteran Avenue, and Calvin William Wambolt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Wambolt, Dartmouth, Nova Scotia.

Chancel and guest pews were adorned with spring flowers and wedding music was played by Eric Edwards. During signing of the register, Mrs. J. Wilson sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Wearing traditional white satin, the bride walked up the aisle on the arm of her father. Her gown was fashioned with a net yoke, lily point sleeves and V-shaped bodice of Chantilly lace, embroidered with seed pearls and white sequins. The skirt swept into a graceful train which was enhanced with panels of the lace.

Her white satin cap, trimmed with seed pearls, held a fingertip veil of nylon net and she wore a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, the gift of the groom. Her flowers were red roses and feathered white hyacinths.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Lyle Tillapaugh, wearing a gown of mauve nylon net over

Oak Bay May Take Pre-Primary Tots

Principal discussion at annual meeting of Greater Victoria Nursery School, Oak Bay and Wilmut Place, centred about closing of pre-primaries in several districts. Opinion was expressed that the shut-down presents a challenge to the school to accommodate a possible influx of children from districts affected.

At present the school, which is a parents' co-operative and staffed by trained personnel, takes children from two to five years of age.

Committee reports showed a successful year and a vote of thanks was passed to G. E. Bowes and Mrs. E. D. Durrant for their work.

Election of officers showed Mr. Bowes re-elected president; Dr. H. M. Edmonson, immediate past president; J. W. A. Green, vice-president; R. J. Nation, treasurer; Mrs. R. B. Bush, secretary; Mrs. Ross G. D. McNeely, admissions and membership; Mrs. P. F. D'Esturbe, public relations; Mrs. John S. Stefaniec and Cmdr. R. S. Martin, work; Mrs. Edmonson and Mrs. A. E. Trotter, representatives to Nursery School Association of Victoria; Mrs. Green, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. W. B. Smith, telephone committee; Mrs. A. L. Bristowe, refreshment convenor.

Following business two films on child development were shown.

Ambassador's Wife Finds Life in Tokyo Interesting and Stimulating

By ELIZABETH FORBES

Mrs. Robert W. Mayhew, wife of Canada's Ambassador to Japan, says in letters written to her family in Victoria that "life goes on as usual" in Tokyo.

Then she describes refreshingly of rooms in the Embassy, luncheons and dinners, theatre parties, and she tells how she is learning to know the city. And you realize that "life as usual" means something happening every hour of her busy days.

In a letter received just recently by her son, Logan Mayhew, "Grace Mayhew describes Tokyo as a 'city of walls'."

"You never quite see into a Japanese garden," she writes. "It is always fenced in with a high wall or high hedge. Every embassy is behind walls, in a secluded spot, not out near the street. The British Embassy is more open, but it is immense, with private houses and an apartment or two within the grounds."

"There are always narrow little streets leading into these large homes."

EMBASSY HER HOME
Mrs. Mayhew's love of home and flowers and her delight in decorating and furnishing is finding full scope.

"We have transformed our sunroom," she says, "a large room at the end of the drawing room with two French doors going into it on either side of the fireplace. A very nice pleasant room, without any proper furniture."

"We got good bamboo pieces, nice color in cushions, lovely glass-topped table, and tables, nest of tables and other things. Then Bob (His Excellency the Ambassador) went to a florist and got some flowering plants. We found a good suitable rug in light blue in the store room here and we now have a most attractive room."

"Our downstairs boys, Satho San, Imuta San, and our nice chauffeur, Tanikawa, are as thrilled as can be. No one went into the room before as there were just a few chairs, set in a row, an old couch and table. Now we all want to use the room."

The Mayhews are also doing over the guest room. "It's very long and rather awkward, with high ceilings and tremendous windows," the letter tells you, "so we're putting the beds down near the very large bathroom, making a sitting room of the other end. And a dressing room with sliding cupboards in the bathroom."

All the bedrooms in the embassy need readjusting. Grace Mayhew writes, and then her woman's love of "making do" comes to the surface when she adds, "they don't need much money spent, but curtains and bedspreads changed around to match better."

The letter tells of a symphony the Ambassador and Mrs. Mayhew attended with two young Japanese girls as guest artists, playing two grand pianos in duet; a concert in which Szegedi, one of the world's best violinists, was the artist and a Kubuki performance with lighter drama.

"This drama is real antique... like feudal times in dress, voice and all," Mrs. Mayhew explains, "entirely male cast, though you'd never realize it. Acting is superb and stage settings great hahamaichi (flower walk) from back of theatre to stage, where actors cross on and off frequently. Stage was 70 feet wide and often looked like a garden."

"We were guests at the Szegedi concert and the Kubuki, invited by the newspapers who sponsor many things here. They give a whole block of seats to embassies sometimes," the letter continues.

MANY SOCIAL AFFAIRS
Speaking of the recent visit to Tokyo of Admiral E. Rollo Mainguy, Mrs. Mayhew writes, "we were at a luncheon at Admiral Briscoe's and at General Mark Clark's for Admiral Mainguy."

And she adds that Mr. Mayhew gave a large stag dinner for Admiral Mainguy with all top service people. "There are heaps of generals and admirals here."

"We've been to many dinners," the letter says, "French embassy again... go tomorrow for the third time... been to Pakistan dinner and a Dominican Republic reception... going to a Brazilian dinner and we go to a reception at Crown

A prize-winning documentary film, "Packaged Power," was shown to a well-attended meeting of Victoria Women's Canadian Club, recently, by Robert Muir, public relations officer for Aluminum Company of Canada.

The film presented a comprehensive survey of the aluminum industry in Canada and its world-wide application. In a brief talk following the showing, Mr. Muir narrowed the field to British Columbia, speaking on plans for Kitimat, the effect of the development on industrial life of B.C., worker conditions and relative matters.

Lorraine Hemming Married In Setting of Spring Bloom

Centennial United Church was the scene, Saturday evening, of an attractive ceremony uniting in marriage, Lorraine Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hemming, Cook Street, and Alan Murdoch Grant, son of Group Capt. and Mrs. J. M. Grant, Oliver Street. Rev. Douglas Carr officiated in a setting of spring flowers.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length dress of white lace, the full skirt flaring from a buttoned-down-front bodice that featured a tiny collar and long sleeves. A close-fitting cap of the lace held a brief veil. Red roses and white hyacinths in a cascade formation, were her flowers.

Her single attendant was Mrs. June Jarvie, wearing yellow taffeta brocade and carrying blue hyacinths and blue and gold iris. Best man was Grant Livingstone. David Aldritt and Barry Jones were ushers.

Assisting in receiving guests at a reception, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hemming, was the bride's mother, in a dress of mauve flowered nylon with corsage of violets and freesias, and the mother of the groom, wearing robin's egg blue crepe and corsage of pink carnations and freesias.

Oriental cherry blossom, pink camellias and spring flowers were massed in the reception rooms and the bride's table was centred with a three-tier cake and bowl of pink camellias. George Love, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast. For a honeymoon up-island, Mrs. Grant traveled in a rosy-bloss suit, topped with a winter white coat. Her accessories were navy and her corsage of pink Tallisman roses.

Guild Members See Hand Loom Demonstration

Exhibition of a specially designed hand loom by its inventor, Mr. Nesbitt, who had built the model himself, intrigued members at a meeting of Victoria Hand Weavers' Guild recently. His ingenious method of moving the heddles was especially admired.

Plans were discussed for the annual July exhibition at Empress Hotel. Arrangements are being made to bring exhibits from other parts of Canada. Mrs. Doris Horton of Sidney was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Pettit was a visitor. Competition for best apron and best bit of upholstery were both won by Mrs. Francis Clarke.

Two Basketball Crowns Won by Brentwood Girls

There was joy in Brentwood over the weekend as two of the community's basketball teams won Saanich and Suburban Basketball League championships.

Carrying over a 12-point lead from the opener of a two-game total-point series, Brentwood Midgets defeated Sooke 36-14 Friday night to easily carry off the midget crown.

Although they were beaten 16-13 Friday by Saanichton, Brentwood biddy girls still won the championship of their division as they had a four-point edge from the first game of the series and won the championship by three points.

Not so successful were the Brentwood biddy boys. They defeated Saanichton 14-8 Friday but Saanichton won the league championship as a result of the 11-point victory they scored in the first game of the total-point series.

Husky Ken Barnes ran wild in an exhibition game that was part of the four-game card. Barnes thumped in 42 points as his Gordon Head Service club rattled Brentwood Senior C men 95-44.

KEEPS VIGIL OF FAITH

Father on Fifth Journey In Search for Lost Son

VANCOUVER (CP)—Sventy-one-year-old John Sutherland will wait and watch a fifth time in King's Cross station in London this Easter Sunday.

He's hoping to see his son, missing and presumed dead since an RCAF bomber was shot down off Holland in 1943.

Five years later, Mr. Sutherland, visiting England for the first time in 43 years, wandered into King's Cross on Easter Sunday.

Faces passed by. Then, through a gap in the crowd, he looked into the eyes of a man he swears was his son.

"I knew it was my boy, but I couldn't move. The crowd swirled and he was gone."

Since then Mr. Sutherland has traveled four times from his Vancouver home to keep his vigil of faith on Easter Sunday.

In 1952 there were 362,000,000 ice cream cones manufactured in Canada, about 30,000,000 more than in 1951.

Will anyone knowing the whereabouts of John Sutherland, please write to: John Sutherland, c/o Mrs. Barbara Green, 1028 Government Street, Victoria, B.C.

Polishes, Polish Removers May Be Cause of Split Fingernails
By EDWIN JORDAN, MD

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service
We take fingernails and toenails pretty much for granted until something goes wrong, and then they usually turn out to be more important than we realized.
Q—One of my fingernails has split and has been this way for years. Some of the others are ridged, but this is the only one which has split. Do you have any suggestions?—Mrs. A.L.B.
A.—There are many possible causes for split or brittle fingernails. In some cases the use of nail polishes or glazes or the chemical used in their removal takes away the natural oil from the nails and causes them to split or become brittle. Too-frequent washing with soap and water or contact in one's occupation with some irritating chemical may also be at fault. Any local irritation of the skin near the nail bed or invasion of the nails by fungi may make them crumble or split.

International Monument for Explorer Plan

Lack of a monument on the shores of Puget Sound to honor Captain George Vancouver, who discovered the area, has provided an international project for Victoria and West Seattle Lions clubs.
The West Seattle Lions have suggested that a monument be set up on the West Seattle shore of Puget Sound and beside it they would have a mounted telescope for benefit of tourists.
A receptacle for donations from passersby who used the glass would be opened annually, with the ceremony held every second year by the Victoria Club, whose charities would share in the proceeds.
If the monument, approved by the Lions here Friday, can be completed by July, the premier of B.C. and the governor of Washington State will be asked to officiate at the unveiling.

Humber Warehouse Entered, Intruders Go Empty-Handed

Be it ever so Humber, make sure your windows are locked. This will probably be the theme of the next advertisement of the three notable brothers who operate a furniture store at 531 Bastion.

Yesterday morning the Humber brothers reported to city police the premises had been broken into the previous night. The main office had been ransacked, and apparently the culprits had roamed throughout the premises, but nothing was reported missing.

Police said entry had been gained by opening a second-floor window and removing a plate mirror which had covered the glass on the inside.

Thieves who broke into premises at 749C Broughton the same night did a little better.

Island Digest

CAMPBELL RIVER — Residents of Quadra Island have rejected an offer by C. H. R. Davis, of Nanaimo, to put the 10-car ferry Ena into service between Gowan Harbour and Duncan Bay. A committee of islanders investigated the offer and decided the vessel was not sufficiently seaworthy. Islanders are hoping to find a four-car ferry which would operate between Quathiaski Cove and Campbell River.

NANAIMO — Ernest Butcher has been elected president of the Nanaimo Real Estate Board to succeed H. J. Evans. Frank Ney was elected vice-president; Kenneth Guest, secretary-treasurer, and Hugh Wilson, director.

COURTENAY — William C. Moore, who represented Comox in the most recent Legislature, was unanimously nominated by the CCF Sunday to seek the seat again.

Mr. Moore, in accepting the nomination, said he had enjoyed being a legislator but observed it was "no picnic."

Frank Calder, CCFer from Atlin, also addressed the meeting.

Ad and Sales Men Hear Boost for Own Science

Importance of advertising and sales clubs to the Canadian economic picture will be the theme of a talk by William Hamilton of Montreal to the Victoria Advertising and Sales Club luncheon in the Pacific Club Tuesday at 12.15.

Mr. Hamilton is executive director of the Federation of Canadian Advertising and Sales Clubs. The Victoria club called a special meeting to hear him while he is on the west coast.

SLIGHT ERROR

FARNHAM ROYAL, England (CP) — Farmer Harold Jell protested when his white and yellow Guernsey cow, bred by artificial insemination, gave birth to a black and white Friesian calf. He claimed compensation but was told users of the insemination service "must take the risk of a mistake."

U.S. OPEN TO RED A-BOMBS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The head of the federal civil defense organization said Sunday night that seven out of 10 Russian planes could penetrate United States' defenses to drop atomic bombs. Val Peterson, interviewed on a television show, said "They, the Russians, can put one or more atomic bombs in every high priority industrial area in America at one time."

Dissension in CCF Ranks Denied By Re-Nominated Island Member

COURTENAY — There is no dissension within the CCF party, William C. Moore, Comox M.L.A., told a meeting here Sunday which nominated him to contest the constituency in the coming provincial election.

Harold Winch, he said, had submitted his resignation to the party caucus. But he had been unanimously endorsed to lead the party again, Mr. Moore said.

At the meeting in the CCF hall Mr. Moore was given wholehearted support. Mr. Moore said he had enjoyed representing the people of this district in the Legislature although it was no picnic at times.

"I feel more confident than ever with the knowledge and experience that I have gained at the Legislature," he added.

Speaking with Mr. Moore was CCF member Frank Calder of Atlin. He asserted that the 18 CCF members in the House had created a great working team and Mr. Moore was a major factor in creating this all-out co-operative group.

"This coming B.C. test will be the outstanding provincial election of all time, and we need a lot of help by the individual supporter. No one should panic, he said.

Mr. Moore spoke on the ramifications of the Rolston Formula and issued a challenge to Mrs. Tilly Rolston, or any other Social Credit member or candidate, to debate with him on an open platform its workings.

Highest Paid Teachers Trail Field, Charge

The highest paid teachers in B.C. earn $1,000 less annually than the national average of professional workers, according to Frank Snowsall, CCF provincial member of Saanich.

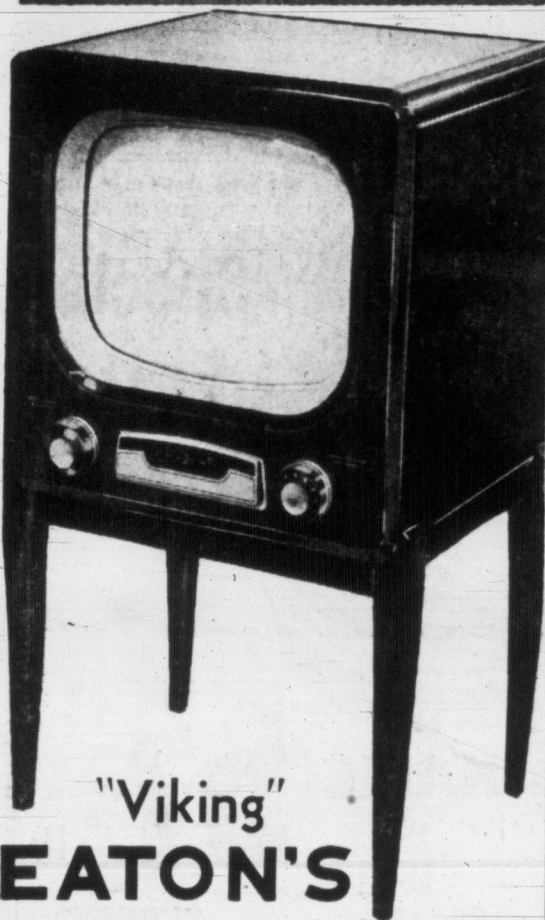

He made this observation in a recent address to party members at Woodworth Hall.

Mr. Snowsall pointed to the fact that the four principal expenditures revealed by the UBCM were for police, fire protection, public works and education, in that order. He added that the first three have increased in cost at a much greater rate than has education.

"Much of the education expense is wasted," said the Saanich teacher, "because we allow other forces to do everything the schools try to do." He cited commercial radio, advertising, movies, pulp magazine and particularly "funnies" as the worst offenders, said the pursuit of profit seems more important than our education system.

U.S. 'NIKE' TO PROTECT BIG CITIES

WASHINGTON (UP)—The army said today it is going to start putting supersonic guided missiles to work this summer to guard major U.S. cities from an enemy air attack.

The deadly-accurate, radar-aimed missile—its name is "Nike"—is capable of speeds up to 1,500 miles an hour. Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens called it "the best anti-aircraft weapon now available."

The army recently said it was "almost impossible" for the Nike to miss once it has located a target.

Stevens said guided missile batteries will be set up chiefly around big cities and industrial centers, which he did not identify. He said present anti-aircraft units will be converted to use of the "Nike" on a progressive basis "and the first are expected to be physically established during the coming summer."

No Escape From Taxation Even for Yacht-Dwellers

Geoffrey Blake, naval architect from Bristol, England, who plans to make his home in Victoria aboard his 36-foot cabin cruiser, is faced with a tax bill before he can settle down at anchorage in Shoal Bay.

In Vancouver Friday, customs officials explained that regulations require him to pay 15 per cent duty and 10 per cent federal sales tax on the cruiser, which was shipped to this coast from England aboard the Funnish-Witby freighter Ss. Pacific Nomad.

Mr. Blake said he had been told by settlement immigration officials in England he could bring the cruiser to Canada as duty-free settlers' effects.

Customs officials will assess the boat to see how much duty must be paid.

'JACK THE STRANGLER'

Full Moon Tonight May Drive Lunar Maniac to New Murder

LONDON (CP). — Urgent new warnings went out today to all British police that London's "Jack the Strangler," a sex-crazed maniac, may strike again at tonight's full moon. Already investigators had found the remains of six of his victims — and what may be the shattered skull of a seventh.

Police believe the ghastly murders show a pattern of moon madness that could bring another slaying tonight.

They pursued a theory that the strangler at the time of the full moon goes berserk, entices the women into some secluded place, strangles them and assaults them sexually.

Like the notorious Jack the Ripper of the 19th century, the strangler apparently concentrated on fallen women. He lured young women who walked the back streets or were out for a gay time by asking them to pose for his camera in the nude. Four of the strangler's victims were in their teens or early 20s.

The charred remains of two bodies and possibly a third were dug out of the tiny garden of the horror house during the week-end. Another had been found last Tuesday under the floor boards of the ground floor apartment and three more half-nude bodies, believed the killer's most recent victims, were discovered hidden in a papered-over cupboard.

Police speculated that the murderer used the cupboard as a temporary storehouse for the bodies until he could bury them. For that reason, they said, more corpses may be around the house or in the garden.

One of Britain's biggest police nets was out for John Reginald Christie, 55-year-old trucking clerk who had rented the murder flat for 15 years. His wife was among the victims.

While the digging detectives turned up their latest victim — or victims — behind the rotting, three-story house, throngs of Londoners stood fascinated outside, eating ice cream or shellfish.

Police believe the killer buried victim No. 5 — found Saturday — six years ago. This may mean he has been strangling and sealing away women during the last six years or more.

Winch Action Clouds B.C. Vote Picture

Decision of Harold Winch to resign as leader of the CCF Party was the main point of speculation in B.C.'s confused political situation today as all parties began preparations for the general election.

What will this do to the CCF chances? Is there any more to it than the simple explanation that Mr. Winch is physically tired after 20 years in the political rough-and-tumble and wants to go into the background?

Already it appears that at the party convention opening April 10 Winch to stay in the post and lead the party into the crucial election battle.

Speaking at Comox Saturday night, William Moore, CCF MLA for the riding, stressed that the party caucus of 17 members was unanimous in asking Winch to stay as leader. Their views will be put strongly before the convention, he intimated.

Both Moore and Frank Mitchell, CCF Esquimalt, who also spoke Saturday at a nomination meeting, insisted there has been no policy split between Winch and the rest of the party.

Mitchell said: "Mr. Winch is sick and tired. He needs a long rest from the strain of politics. There was nothing mysterious about his resignation."

The effect Winch's resignation may have on the coming election—if it is accepted—as a source of speculation. Through his years in the House he has built up a great reputation as a parliamentarian and orator. Without him, observers noted, the CCF strength in B.C. may be considerably affected.

Observers were quick to note that Winch, in his statement said he promised the lieutenant-governor that, if named premier, he would carry on the government without introducing "what might be termed a 'Socialist' policy" before an election.

CCF spokesman insisted this had nothing to do with Winch's resignation which had been submitted to the party caucus several days previously.

However, it was clear that this spat brought about a premature announcement of the resignation. In the normal way Winch would likely have waited until the convention to announce his desire to resign.

Twice within the last year he has had the premiership almost within his grasp, only to lose it by a hairsbreadth.

After the first count in the June 12 election last year Winch's party had the lead in

Red China Proposes New Plan for PW's

(Compiled From UP and CP Dispatches)
LONDON—Chinese Communist Premier Chou En-Lai said today that the "time should be considered ripe" to settle the entire question of prisoners of war and end the war in Korea. His statement was heard in London on a broadcast by the Red China News Agency.

The Red Chinese premier said "a reasonable settlement" of the question of exchanging sick and wounded war prisoners has a significant bearing on the settlement of the entire prisoner of war question. That's the issue that forced the truce talks to bog down last October.

33 AGED DIE AS FIRE GUTS NURSING HOME

LARGO, Fla. (UP)—Investigators combed through a mass of ashes, blackened bed frames and other debris today in an effort to determine the cause of a wind-whipped fire which killed 33 aged persons at a nursing home near here.

Four aged persons died in Kingston fire Saturday. See story, Page 2.

William L. Littlefield, operator of the home, said the fire roared through the structure early Sunday and killed the 33 dazed and feeble inmates within 15 minutes. Twenty-five others escaped the flaming structure.

Don Jerlita, deputy Florida fire marshal, planned to interview witnesses, some of the personnel of the home and others who dashed into the flaming structure to save those who lived.

The Red Chinese said an earlier overture Saturday, accepting a Feb. 22 UN proposal for exchange of sick and wounded war prisoners and asking that the truce talks be resumed. The UN has not answered the Saturday proposal.

Some Allied officers said privately and unofficially that the proposal, if it meant what it seems, might end the Korean war. But they had their fingers crossed and there was a feeling of super caution along the command.

MLAs Hint Pressure for Him
To Stay as Leader of CCF

Decision of Harold Winch to resign as leader of the CCF party was the main point of speculation in B.C.'s confused political situation today as all parties began preparations for the general election.

NO ELECTION DATE SET

Announcement of the exact date of B.C.'s general election was delayed again today. Premier Bennett said a cabinet meeting Tuesday will consider the date, which is to be "on or before June 15." See page 15 for preparations of parties for the campaign.

WINCH IN—

Impossible Financial Condition

In an interview today, Harold Winch said his 20 years in politics have left him in an "impossible financial position."

"I am in an impossible financial situation on account of devoting my entire time the last 20 years to being an MLA," he said.

Mr. Winch, an electrician by trade, has no plans yet as to what business he will enter when he leaves politics.

Asked if he plans to run again as an MLA even if he is not party leader, Mr. Winch said: "I don't know." He was definite, however, that his resignation as leader must stand.

"I can't think of anything the convention can possibly say which would make me change my mind," he said.

33 AGED DIE AS FIRE GUTS NURSING HOME

Florida Inferno
Lasted 15 Minutes

LARGO, Fla. (UP)—Investigators combed through a mass of ashes, blackened bed frames and other debris today in an effort to determine the cause of a wind-whipped fire which killed 33 aged persons at a nursing home near here.

Ages of the dead ranged from 65 to 91. Twenty-nine of them were women.

(Four Aged Persons Died in Kingston Fire. See Story, Page 2.)

William L. Littlefield, operator of the home, said the fire roared through the structure early Sunday and killed the 33 dazed and feeble inmates within 15 minutes. Twenty-five others escaped the flaming structure.

Don Jerlita, deputy Florida fire marshal, planned to interview witnesses, some of the personnel of the home and others who dashed into the flaming structure to save those who lived.

BROKE OUT AT 3 A.M.

The fire, whipped by a gusty wind, broke out shortly after 3 a.m.

There were occasional screams as flames reached bed after bed, witnesses said.

A nurse rescued one old woman, then dashed back into the flames in response to screams of others, and died. A man was killed in an auto wreck while driving one of the injured to a hospital.

Ned Moren, 31, Littlefield's son-in-law, said the positions of the bodies indicated few of the victims had tried to leave their beds.

"If some of the old people had made an effort, they could have been saved," he said, "and if the wind had been still we might have saved all of them. But the wind kept shifting."

Night of Terror as Ammo Train Wrecked

LEWIS, Ind. (AP)—Demolition squads worked their way today through the desolation left in this little coal mining town by a nightmare of fire and flying shrapnel from three freight-car loads of exploding ammunition.

Scarcely a half-dozen houses remained habitable in this town of 300 population after the five hours of explosions touched off by a train derailment Saturday night. No one was killed, but 15 persons were injured. Only three went to hospitals.

'JACK THE STRANGLER'

Full Moon Tonight May Drive Lunar Maniac to New Murder

LONDON (CP)—Urgent new warnings went out today to all British police that London's "Jack the Strangler," a sex-crazed maniac, may strike again at tonight's full moon. Already investigators had found the remains of six of his victims—and what may be the shattered skull of a seventh.

Police believe the ghastly murders show a pattern of moon madness that could bring another slaying tonight.

Silent Subjects Pay Homage to Queen Mary

LONDON (CP)—

Crowds filled silently through Westminster Hall today to pay a last reverent homage to Queen Mary.

By early afternoon, 4,000 persons an hour, damp from intermittent rain, were entering the hall where the Queen lies in state.

It was expected that by the time the body is removed for the funeral service at St. George's Chapel, Windsor, Tuesday, about 100,000 will have come to say farewell to the 85-year-old Queen who died last Tuesday.

Many of the mourners were elderly persons of Queen Mary's own generation. Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh were at the airport to greet the royal visitors.

ROYALTY ARRIVES

The thinning ranks of European royalty began arriving, meanwhile, for Queen Mary's funeral.

Former King Umberto, of Italy arrived by plane. Shortly afterward came Prince Bertil of Sweden. Greece's Queen Frederika arrived Sunday and went to Westminster Hall to pay her respects.

Others expected were Crown Prince Olav of Norway, King Baudouin of Belgium, Queen Juliana of The Netherlands and her husband, Prince Bernhard.

Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh were at the airport to greet the royal visitors.

The lying-in-state will continue until midnight tonight. Tuesday the coffin will be taken by car to Windsor, where the funeral service will be conducted by the archbishop of Canterbury at 11 a.m. (5 a.m. CST). A public service will be held in London's stately St. Paul's Cathedral at the same time.

Throughout Sunday night and today, a silent file of mourning Britons moved past the dead queen's coffin as it lay in state in ancient Westminster Hall, adjoining the Houses of Parliament.

By dawn, nearly 40,000 persons had passed the candlelit catafalque, resplendent in its purple drapings and silver pall.

QUIET STREETS

Queen Mary herself had made similar mourning pilgrimages to the hall 13 months ago, when her son, King George VI lay in state there.

The coffin was brought to Westminster Hall Sunday, carried through crowded, silent London streets from Marlborough House, where the queen died.

Churches of various denominations throughout the city will hold special joint service from 12:15 to 12:45 in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, sponsored by Victoria Ministerial Association.

It is the regular Lenten noon service which on Tuesday will be a memorial to the late dowager Queen Mary.

While there will be no official service at St. Andrew's Cathedral, members of the congregation have been urged to "pray for the Royal Family in their hour of trial."

Chou En Lai's Proposal Similar to Indian Formula

By JOHN RANDOLPH

TOKYO (AP)—Premier Chou En-lai of China tonight offered a compromise solution to the knotty problem of repatriating Korean war prisoners—the only issue blocking an armistice agreement.

It was the first break in the Reds previously-unyielding demands that all prisoners be returned.

Chou proposed that both sides return those prisoners who insist on going home and hand over the others to a neutral state "to insure a just solution to the question of their repatriation."

He did not propose a neutral state by name, presumably leaving that question to be decided at the armistice site of Panmunjom.

Offer Heard in Broadcast

Chou's offer—similar to plans advanced in the United Nations assembly—came in a broadcast heard here over the Communist Peiping radio.

Gen. Mark Clark, UN Far East commander, was not immediately available for comment.

A spokesman said: "We are not selling the statement short but so far it is just a Communist radio broadcast."

The spokesman said as far as he knew no formal communication from Chou had been received.

MIGHT END WAR

Some Allied officers said privately and unofficially that the proposal, if it meant what it seems, might end the Korean war. But they had their fingers crossed and there was a feeling of super caution along the command.

The Reds made an earlier overture Saturday, accepting a Feb. 22 UN proposal for exchange of sick and wounded war prisoners and asking that the truce talks be resumed. The UN has not answered the Saturday proposal.

Chou said tonight: "Both parties... should undertake to repatriate immediately after the cessation of hostilities all those prisoners of war... who insist upon repatriation and to hand over the remaining prisoners of war to a neutral state so as to ensure a just solution to the question of their repatriation."

STILL ADAMANT

However, Chou also said: "We by no means relinquish the principle of release and repatriation of war prisoners without delay after the cessation of hostilities."

"Nor do we acknowledge the assertion of the United Nations command that there are among the prisoners of war individuals who allegedly refuse repatriation."

Chou said the Chinese and North Korean Reds are taking this step to solve the war only because this one item blocks an armistice.

Chou's plan is similar to the Indian proposal to end the war which was submitted in the United Nations last fall and was sharply rejected by the two warring Communist nations and Russia.

The Chinese premier, No. 1 man in the Asian Communist hierarchy, is the one usually selected to make important announcements.

He had just returned to Peiping from Moscow where he attended the funeral of Stalin and signed new economic agreements with Russia.

In his statement tonight, Chou said:

"It is only because the termination of the bloody war in Korea and the peaceful settlement of the Korean question is bound up with the question of the peace and security of the people of the Far East and the world that we take this new step."

He kept some sting in his words—although not as much as the usual Red invective—as he referred to "those captured personnel of our side who, under the intimidation and oppression of the opposite side, are filled with apprehensions and are afraid to return home."

Pavlovsk Case May Go to Jury On Wednesday

VANCOUVER (CP)—The trial of Walter Pavlovsk, charged with the gun slaying of banker Sydney Petrie here in 1947, may reach the jury late Wednesday.

Det. Stan Craig told an assize court jury here today he had known Pavlovsk for "14 or 15 years" and his appearance had changed very little since the last time Craig saw him in downtown Vancouver. The only striking difference noted by the police officer was that Pavlovsk used to comb his hair back "pompadour style." It now is parted neatly on the right.

"Does the fact that there was a photo of the accused in police records and fingerprints indicate to you that he has been in the tools of the law for some criminal offense?" asked chief defense counsel Thomas Hurley.

Det. Craig agreed that this would generally indicate that he had at one time been arrested and held in custody.
